CLERGY COLUMN

A MESSAGE FROM RABBI MILLER

CELEBRATING THE VOLUNTEER SPIRIT AT TBE

More than anything else, a Temple is a community. We have incredible programs, beautiful worship, a majestic facility ... but at heart, this place is about people. As a Temple staff, our primary motivation is to create an environment where each one of us can build and nurture holy relationships.

One vital aspect of this TBE community is the rich tapestry of volunteers who make so much about Temple happen on a regular basis. Caring, talented, and dedicated volunteers devote their time and energy to this community, and we are always looking for new ways to celebrate their hard work.

This June, at our Annual Meeting (see details in sidebar), we plan to unveil our new TBE Volunteer Spirit Awards! Each year, we will bestow this award upon three Temple members who have made our Temple community holier through their volunteer efforts. There are, of course, dozens and dozens of volunteers who merit an award like this. Our hope is that over time, the Temple membership will look forward to this chance to recognize a few worthy volunteers each year – even as so many more contribute every day, without seeking recognition.

For now, if you would like to nominate someone for a 2018 Volunteer Spirit Award, please send an email to our Executive Director, Kim Raznik, at kraznik@tbeonline.org including their name, their volunteer activity, and a short description of why you think they would be a worthy recipient.

At Temple Beth El, our volunteers make sure that Our Spirit is Growing ... we look forward to seeing you on June 14 as we celebrate them!

YOUR TEMPLE WORKING FOR YOU

ELDER CARE

One of our most sacred duties is to take care of our parents and grandparents as they get older (remember the 5th Commandment: Honor your father and your mother). Depending on their condition, care might include anything from phone calls and visits to taking care of their finances or even addressing physical needs. No matter how much we love them, it can sometimes feel overwhelming – as we also deal with the emotions that come with changes in their needs and abilities.

At Temple, we are here to help. Our clergy are available to you any time, to offer support or guidance or prayers. And our wonderful Caring Community is prepared to make visits or help coordinate additional assistance. Contact Laura in the Rabbis' Study at llucassian@tbeonline.org or 248.865.0602, and she will help you get started.

ELDER CARE: No matter how much we love our aging family members, it can be overwhelming to deal with the emotions that come with changes in their needs and abilities – Temple is here to help.

Temple Beth El has 167 years of history, nearly 1,100 member families, and a calendar packed with opportunities to connect, learn, celebrate, and volunteer. But just as important, our Temple is here to provide resources, guidance, rituals, and spiritual counseling for a range of special moments throughout your lifetime. Each month, this page will help you explore the various aspects of what Temple has to offer, with specifics about how to take advantage of your membership.

For example:

BRIS/BABY NAMING: Special ceremonies at Temple, your home, or elsewhere to bless a new child, give them a Hebrew name, and welcome them into the Covenant of the Jewish People.

AUFUF: Celebrate your upcoming wedding at Temple by receiving a blessing from the bimah during Friday night services, or coming up to the Torah for an aliyah on Saturday morning.

ANNIVERSARIES: Beginning in 2018, we will honor those celebrating "quinquennial" (every 5 years) anniversaries with a special blessing on the bimah during a Friday night service. For those married 50 years or more, please let us know so we can prepare a special gift – you are an inspiration to us all!

BLESSING YOUR HOME: A mezuzah can make a house feel like a Jewish home, and our clergy are available to help you affix a mezuzah with a simple ceremony to bless your home.

SPIRITUAL COUNSELING: Life is filled with beauty, but it also contains difficulties. Judaism has a lot to offer, and our compassionate clergy are here to talk with you confidentially about any emotional, spiritual, or religious concerns you would like to discuss.

HOSPITAL VISITS: Whether you or a loved one are in the hospital for surgery, illness or another reason, we are here to offer comfort, spiritual guidance, and practical support. Our clergy visit hospitals throughout the metro area regularly, and are ready with a prayer, song, or gentle conversation.

SHIVA CORPS: After a funeral, it is customary to gather for Shiva to share stories, comfort one another, and join together for a brief service. In addition to our clergy, the TBE Shiva Corps is a group of volunteers who are ready to provide an opportunity to share memories and say Mourner's Kaddish surrounded by community.

UNVEILING: Near the end of the first year after the death of a loved one, we return to the cemetery for an "unveiling" ceremony to install and bless a permanent marker at the gravesite.

For more information, or to let us know what's going on in your life, contact Laura Lucassian at llucassian@tbeonline.org or 248.851.1100.

BRYCE TOBY

BRYCE TOBY

Bryce Toby, age 9, was chosen by SEEN magazine (www.neighborhoodseen.com) as one of six kids in their story "2018 Young Changemakers." The article will be featured in their August "back to school" issue. Toby was chosen for his dedication to raising charity for Relay for Life - West Bloomfield. He's raised money for the group since he was 4 years old, convincing his preschool to let him place a collection can at the school. At age 5, when he moved to Walton Charter Academy, he persuaded the principal and worked with the school to create a coin drive. Every year since, he's continued the tradition raising money and awareness for his cause of choice.

An event honoring the six chosen Changemakers will take place on August 26th, 2-4 p.m. at Airtime Trampoline in Troy. The event is open to all. Proceeds from ticket sales will be split amongst the honoree's organizations/activities of choice.

ESTHER'S 80'S PROM

FEBRUARY 28

What a fun night celebrating Purim with everyone! Thanks to our actors Dr. James Allen Jones, Rachel Hollander, Sara Wolf, Sarah Winsky, Logan Hahn, Carey Kalmowitz, Jeff Hollander, Laura Williams, Rabbi Megan Brudney, Cantor Gottlieb Rachel Kalmowitz, Rabbi Mark Miller, and Donzelle Graham. Thanks also to Danielle Gordon, Lindsey Fox Wagner, Debbie Morosohk, and our hard-working maintenance and security teams for all they did to make the event a big success.

PURIM CARNIVAL

MARCH 4

Thanks to the efforts of our many volunteers, sponsors, Brotherhood, and the Women of TBE, this year's carnival was tremendous. On this happy occasion our extended Temple family included 30 youth invited from Kids Kicking Cancer. KKC is a nonprofit dedicated to helping children affected by cancer and their families. Popcorn was eaten, games were won, the bull was ridden, and many prizes were given out. Everybody that attended had a wonderful time!

SMALL FRI PURIM BLOWOUT!

MARCH 2

We had the best time at our Small Fri Purim Blowout! We sang songs, met Elmo, got tattoos and balloon animals, and bounced the night away in our awesome costumes.

PERPETUATING THE MEMORY OF THE CHILD

REMEMBRANCES

Almost 10 years ago, a woman named Heatherly Walker from California visited the concentration/extermination camp at Auschwitz-Birkenau. For anyone who has been there, it is a haunting experience. Among so many other symbols of the Holocaust, Heatherly was struck by a display of baby sweaters – dusty remnants of the approximately 232,000 children who were sent to this particular camp. According to records, more than 700 babies were born in Auschwitz-Birkenau, and it is painful to think about the lives that were lived and lost in that terrible place.

We may not know the stories of the particular sweaters that were displayed at the camp, but Heatherly explained that she couldn't get the images out of her head. As a result, she contacted Auschwitz for permission to replicate the pattern on one of the sweaters, and started knitting a new sweater that could be worn by a baby while perpetuating the memory of the child who may have left the original sweater behind. Eventually, her powerful story was published in a knitting magazine.

We do not take these remembrances lightly, and one of our Temple's responsibilities is to preserve the painful legacy of the Holocaust and to make sure it never happens again.

Gail and Ken Posner represent another Temple family with ties to the Holocaust. In 2001, they established a fund at Temple to memorialize Gail's father, David C. Frederick (a Holocaust survivor), and to facilitate our annual Yom HaShoah observance. Given the family's strong commitment to maintaining the legacy of the Holocaust in our lives today, the Millers decided to give the sweater to Gail and Ken's nephew, Justin Wedes, and his wife, Rachel Rudman. So their new baby girl – Emunah Hannah Wedes, born on March 1 – will have an opportunity to extend the family tradition by memorializing an element of our communal history.

The Holocaust is a powerful reminder about the evil that has been done to us, and about the need to fight hatred and discrimination today. A new baby is a symbol of all that is good and innocent in the world – there couldn't exist a more stark contrast. As a Temple, we hope that this sweater (with thanks to Heatherly and to Mirielle) may provide another link in the chain of memory and action that makes our Jewish community so unique. When you see the Posner/Wedes family around the Temple, know that they are making a difference ... just like so many Temple members do in so many different ways. And if you happen to be a knitter, see the box on the side of this page for a chance to get involved!

More recently, Rachel Ann Miller's step-grandmother – Mirielle – read the article, and was inspired to follow Heatherly's lead. She knitted a beautiful sweater (pictured on the Bulletin cover) and sent it to Rabbi and Rachel Ann, whom she knew would be able to find a meaningful home for the sweater. And she was right.

Here at Temple, there are many individuals and families who have been touched by the Holocaust. Just last fall, we initiated our "Stories of Survival" project on Yom Kippur afternoon, when Rae Nachbar and Paula Marks-Bolton shared their memories of surviving the Holocaust.

*What an honor
it has been to work with Jan
for the last*

8 years. Her knowledge of the families of this congregation and Detroit's Jewish community is astonishing. What is even more amazing is the fact that Jan began her journey here knowing almost nothing of the Temple Beth El story. Together we would excitedly find a clue and have fun connecting the dots. Watching and learning from her as she went on these history adventures throughout the community are memories I will cherish forever. She dove into our Jewish community wholeheartedly, and everyone that worked with her loved her. I am so excited that Temple Beth El is honoring Jan on May 11th at the Classical Reform Shabbat. It's a wonderful opportunity for the Temple family to thank her for the vitality and energy she brought to the archives.

Suzi MacWilliams, Leo M. Franklin Archives Volunteer

Jan spoke with the new Curator, Laura Williams, and told her some of the highlights of working as the Director of the Rabbi Leo M. Franklin Archives from 2005–2017.

Q What is your favorite collection?

A The Netzorg and Rabinove Family Collection. What an amazing group of people, they were very involved both in business and the humanities. The most compelling thing about the Collection is the wealth of photographs. Ranging from formal portraits to family shots, the photographs capture the days of horse and buggies to the 1950s. You see such dramatic changes in clothing and transportation, it's just very fun!

Q What was the most memorable item you came across?

A That would be a small red hair comb that's part of the Jewish War Veterans' Captain Alan Cherry Collection. He was a pilot shot down during the Vietnam War. His body was recovered years after the war. The comb is caked with dirt because it was with the captain until his remains were brought home. His widow and I both wept when she brought it in. As both her children are deceased, she was so grateful to have a resource such as the Franklin Archives where she could entrust this precious keepsake. It was emotional and quite powerful for both of us, truly an experience that affected me greatly.

Q What was your most meaningful “history” adventure?

A In preparation for the Yamasaki Architecture lecture for the Jewish History Detectives program, one of the committee members, the late Mrs. Carolyn Ash, sponsored my research trip to see the North Shore Congregation Israel in Glencoe, IL. This is the only other synagogue Yamasaki designed, probably ten years before he was tapped for the Beth El commission. Seeing the building firsthand was incredibly moving for me. You really get a sense of the architect’s intent. For instance, the synagogue sits on Lake Michigan. When standing there you don’t see the lake, but you hear the waves crashing onto shore. Yamasaki completely captured the motion of the lake in the structure. For me, just to be there smelling and hearing the water while looking at the building, well it really pulled it all together for me. Inside the main sanctuary, the ark appeared to be covered in gold leaf. The way the afternoon sun took that gold color and diffused it around the white sanctuary lent a whole new level of understanding. What an amazing experience!

Q How did the Archives change over your tenure here?

A When we instituted the annual Jewish History Detectives program (underwritten by Dr. Robert and Joan M. Jampel,) and the Mary Einstein Shapero Memorial Lecture (sponsored by Judge Walter Shapero,) people really took note. In fact, both are now eagerly awaited and well attended every year. Another thing was expanding the Archive to Room 211 to better accommodate our growing collections. Lastly, we strengthened our connections to both Jewish and non-Jewish agencies and collections. That in turn led to increased attention to Beth El’s LMF Archives.

Please join us in celebrating Jan’s work on May 11th. We’ll be creating a tribute book that will include a brief timeline of TBE’s history, along with messages to Jan lauding her amazing legacy.

If you are interested in paying tribute to Jan, contact Laura Williams at 248.851.1100 or llwilliams@tbeonline.org for more information.

Ben-Gurion epilogue.

A LOST INTERVIEW IS BROUGHT TO LIFE

Documentary film and discussion led by Rabbi Mark Miller

THURSDAY, APRIL 26 @ 7:00 PM

As Israel turns 70, this is a good time to reflect on our Jewish State, where it has come from and what is in its future. Come view this documentary film about one of Israel's founders and greatest leaders, and then stay for a discussion led by Rabbi Mark Miller.

It is 1968 and David Ben-Gurion is 82 years old. He lives in his secluded home in the desert, removed from all political discourse, which allows him a hindsight perspective on the Zionist enterprise. Ben-Gurion's introspective soul searching is the focus of this film, and his clear voice provides a surprising vision for today's crucial decisions and the future of Israel.
