

TEMPLE BETH EL

TORAH STUDY At tbe

Saturday mornings, 9:15-10:15 am in the Library

Torah study is a vital part of Jewish life - and here at Temple, we are proud of many opportunities to learn together! Whether you are experienced at interpreting the words of Torah, or are interested in taking a first look at what Torah can offer ... our weekly Torah study is for you! Come as often as you like (or just drop by one week) for tasty bagels, hot coffee, and a stimulating discussion led by our Rabbis or Educator.

Enjoy a little time with friends and the wisdom of our tradition – we are confident you will walk away with insight into the jewels of wisdom and practical advice to be found within our parashah (weekly Torah reading). Feel free to contact the Rabbis' Study for more information.

Most weeks throughout the year, in addition to our TBE Torah Study, our lay-led Bible study will continue in the Board Room at 9:00 am on Saturdays – join Dr. Charles Greenberg for a more advanced analysis of some of the incredible books in our Bible that follow the Torah.

CLERGY COLUMN

SHALOM TEMPLE BETH EL

It's been an incredible fall here at TBE. It feels like we haven't slowed down for a second from our beautiful High Holidays onward. As we settle into winter (or, perhaps, Florida), and maybe even see some downtime on the horizon, I wanted to offer a moment of thanks and gratitude to YOU. It's your participation that makes Temple Beth El such an amazing place of connection, spirit, comfort, and fun.

In my appreciation of you and all you do, I wanted to share a brief text with you. In the list of the many types of sacrifices described in the Torah is one known as the thanksgiving offering (Lev. 7:12).

The Torah specifies that this thanksgiving offering must be consumed in its entirety on the day it is offered, and none of it may be put aside to eat the next day (Lev. 7:13). With this particular sacrifice, there is no room for delayed gratification: the only way to do it correctly is to dive in and soak up all of the thanks immediately.

I wonder if this tight turnaround is actually an expression of faith. We are so sure that there will be something new to be grateful for tomorrow that there is no need to attempt to conserve by spreading out our thankfulness over multiple days!

This is precisely how I feel working here at Temple. Every day there are new encounters, conversations, programs, and people that make me thankful to be here. Through the Sharing Our Stories hotline, in particular, I've forged and deepened relationships that have filled me with awe at you, our members, and your trials and triumphs. And the hotline remains open and waiting for you to add your voice: 248-865-0613. I can't wait to see what 2019 brings us to appreciate!

Thank you for all you do,

Zahr/M Rabbi MEGAN BRUDNEY

DETROIT'S INTERFAITH Beginnings - Beyond Thanksgiving

A document presented to Temple Beth El by the Detroit Council of Churches in 1953, thanking Rabbi Glazer for establishing the Institute.

PEJUMBUCS CLUB

WHEREAS, the Protestant and Eastern Orthodox ministers and religious education leaders of the city have been stimulated and inspired by the Annual Institute on Judaism sponsored each year by Temple Beth El, and

WHEREAS, the Institute is to observe its 10th anniversary on May 26, 1952, and

WHEREAS, this project was initiated by DR. B. BENEDICT GLAZER, the distinguished and beloved Rabbi of Temple Beth El,

BE IT HEREBY RESOLVED, that the Detroit Council of Churches, the Detroit Council of Religious Education and the Detroit Pastors' Union express their profound appreciation to Rabbi Glazer, the members of his Staff and the Congregation of Temple Beth El for the fellowship and inspiration provided through this annual occasion, and

BE IT HEREBY RESOLVED, that we voice the hope that Institute on Judaism be continued for many years to come.

VERNER S. MUMBULO, President Religious Education Detroit Council of Churches

Carlyle F. Stewart

CARLYLE F. STEWART, President Detroit Pastors' Union Detroit Council of Churches Last year, the November spread for the archives was all about Interfaith Thanksgiving and Temple Beth El's involvement in the long-standing tradition of unity and community. Inspired to dig deeper into our interfaith connections, I stumbled upon a group that was made up of clergy from around the city that would gather together and have serious debate and discussion about relevant or current topics.

Rabbi Leo M. Franklin had actually written about the group in his unpublished manuscript about Detroit and Detroiters. After the first Interfaith Thanksgiving service, some of the clergy formed "...a preachers' club that flourished here for many years that gave religious leaders of varying background the incentive and the opportunity to state and defend their views against the counter-views of some of their colleagues." He goes on to describe their meetings, and how this was actually the precursor to The Wranglers Club.

"The club met in bi-weekly sessions at the old Ste. Claire Hotel where, after a good meal, one of the members read a carefully prepared paper, and all the others, without the slightest compunction, tore it to pieces in very short order. Always there prevailed at the meetings the spirit of utmost candor and good will, and no matter how bitterly some of us had berated others, we met as good friends and in the best of humor because we had been able to tell each other, in absolute candor, what some of us might have hesitated to tell their congregants. The name of our Club was the subject of widespread discussion ... we called the club "The Pejumbucs". As a matter of fact, it has been suggested by that scholarly pastor, Dr. Heman P. De Forest, and was made up of all the initial letters of the creeds represented in the original membership; namely: Presbyterian, Episcopalian, Jewish, Unitarian, Methodist, Baptist, Universalist, Congregationalist, etc. The Club carried on its activities for almost two decades when, because of the losses in its ranks due to death or removal from the city, it ceased to function. After a few years, however its spiritual offspring, "The Wranglers", conceived along the same lines as the Pejumbucs and following its methods and policies, came into being, and is still going strong." Franklin, Leo M. (1947) "Some Untold Tales of Detroit & Detroiters"

The first mention I found of the Pejumbucs Club was in a 1907 Detroit Free Press article. Surprisingly, it had very little to do with the group itself and was actually telling a funny story of how one of the men accidently took the wrong hat at the end of the meeting (they all wore hats at the time) and somehow caused every man into a "chorus of protest" as they each searched for their hat (Free Press, 03/16/1907).

We even have one of the papers that Rabbi Franklin wrote for presentation at a 1943 Wranglers Club meeting. The Wranglers Club was so important to Rabbi Franklin that its members served as honorary pallbearers at his funeral (Detroit Jewish News, 8/20/1948). The legacy continued and both Rabbi Glazer and Rabbi Hertz were involved with those groups. The archives has papers that Rabbi Hertz presented to the group as well. Rabbi Glazer and Rabbi Hertz even served as president of the club.

This important partnership branched off and their members joined or created more groups and programs that would help educate the community. For example, Rabbi Glazer started the annual Institute on Judaism for Christian Ministers and Religious Educators of Detroit that later became the Rabbi B. Benedict and Ada S. Glazer Institute that Temple Beth El still hosts each year.

Unfortunately, some of these photographs do not name the individuals present. If you recognize anyone, please let me know.

MEET LAURA LUCASSIAN, ASSISTANT TO THE EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

Tell me about yourself.

I was born in Detroit and raised in Royal Oak. I graduated from Oakland University in 1986 with a major in English and a minor in Communications.

I have two children – my daughter, Ani, is 19 and my son, Armen, is 16. I also have a black lab/boxer mix named Lola. My grandparents were survivors of the Armenian Genocide and came here from Turkey in 1915. Being Armenian is a huge part of my identity.

What do you do in your free time?

I've always been very involved in my church, St. John's Armenian Church in Southfield (the one with the big gold dome). I also love estate sales, thrift shopping, hanging out with friends, listening to music, and spending time with my kids.

What's your favorite food?

Middle Eastern

How long have you worked at Temple?

22 years! I started as a temp in the Cantor's Study in 1996. From there, I worked for 16 years in the Religious School office, which was really great training for someone who isn't Jewish because I was immersed in the customs, holidays, language, and culture. After that I worked six years in the Rabbis' Study, and now I'm in the main office as the Assistant to the Executive Director.

What do you like about working at Temple?

The people. I come to work every day with a smile on my face knowing I get to interact with members, non-members, volunteers, and staff. I always give it my all, but thankfully it comes naturally, it's in my nature to be caring and helpful. It's amazing to get to meet the children of kids I knew when they were in religious school 15 years ago! I really feel connected to our members.

Facilitated by Eileen Polk, MLIS. Once-worldfamous Joel Kupperman, the "Quiz Kid," became one of the most famous children in America during World War II as one of the young geniuses on the series Quiz Kids. Following a childhood spent in the public eye, only to then fall victim to the same public's derision, Joel deliberately spent the remainder of his life removed from the world at large. Now Joel is slipping into dementia, and he seems to embrace it, as it means that the past he would never talk about might be erased forever. All the Answers is a powerful father-son story and an engaging portrayal of what identity came to mean at this turning point in American history.

BITES AND BOOKS Einstein and the Rabbi By Naomi Levy

WED. FEBRUARY 27 10:00 AM/7:00 PM

Facilitated by Rabbi Mark Miller. This author and rabbi's profoundly affecting exploration of the meaning and purpose of the soul was inspired by the correspondence between Albert Einstein and a grieving rabbi. When Rabbi Levy came across this letter by Einstein it shook her to her core. Einstein's words perfectly captured what she has come to believe about the human condition: That we are intimately connected, and that we are blind to this truth. Levy wondered what had elicited such spiritual wisdom from a man of science? Thus began a three-year search into the mystery of Einstein's letter, and into the mystery of the human soul.

INTERFAITH VIGIL & REMEMBRANCE FOR SQUIRREL HILL

Just a few days after the terrible massacre at Tree of Life Synagogue, TBE hosted a community-wide event that drew 1200 people into our Sanctuary for an evening of prayers, tears, and calls to action. We were joined by clergy and guests from across the city, including our partners ... Christ Church Cranbrook, Kirk in the Hills, Muslim Unity Center, St. Hugo's, Breakers Covenant Church International (at the old Beth El building on Gladstone), and Congregation Beth Ahm. Especially in the face of tragedy, we strongly believe that building relationships with our neighbors is the best way to ensure the safety and security of our own Temple, and the broader community to which we belong. If you are interested in helping create stronger interfaith bonds in the future, please contact Rabbi Miller at mmiller@tbeonline.org or 248-851-1100.

GREETINGS FROM THE EXECUTIVE OFFICE

It's always felt funny to me to say "Happy Holidays" or "Happy New Year" at this time of year - as Jews, we said those same words just a few months ago! But as the snow falls outside my office window and hot chocolate sits on my desk, I find myself again saying "Happy Holidays" and "Happy New Year!"

I'm looking forward to seeing you at our upcoming events and creating lasting memories together. I hope you'll join us for Save-a-Life Sunday, the Purim Carnival and Adult Purim Party, our Second Night Seder, Summer Kickoff, and our 2nd Annual Food Truck Festival, just to name a few. I'm especially excited for a new social program called "Schmooze" geared toward the adults of Beth El. Keep an eye out for more details!

In this new year, I hope you will get involved. Getting involved can mean many things - showing up for events and programs, volunteering, giving - and as we put more committees together, or "champions" as I call them, we need your help. Please contact me personally if you are interested in getting more involved.

I look forward to hearing from you, and I hope you enjoy this holiday season!

BETY35 GAGA EVENT

On Sunday, October 21st, we had our first BETY35 event, and it was a fantastic afternoon filled with friends, pizza, gaga, laughs and community service. As part of their B'nai mitzvah projects Ava Paige, Chloe Shirley and Eli Rosenzweig led everyone in designing bags for underprivileged kids and filled them with a teddy bear, a blanket, coloring books, markers, and more fun things! Approximately 100 bags were filled and will be distributed to organizations throughout the community. Following the mitzvah project, everyone enjoyed pizza and gaga for the rest of the afternoon.

KAYE & JAGODA WEEKEND

musicians-in-residence weekend November 2-4, was jam-packed with events for all ages. Friday night, Elana Jagoda and Saul Kaye joined our Music Shabbat Band (Jim Gabriel, Logan Hahn, Carey Kalmowitz, Michelle Posner, Matt Rappaport, Sarah Rappaport, Steve Tarnowsky, and the clergy) in a moving and uplifting Solidarity Shabbat service. The Maas Chapel was filled to overflowing, and the sense of community and connection was palpable. Everyone enjoyed the Donut oneg, sponsored by Carolyn and Charles Greenberg. Saturday morning for Tot Shabbat, scores of old and new friends in Handleman Hall were entranced by Elana's energy, enthusiasm, songs, and stories, while Saturday afternoon, Saul took us on a journey into the heart of Jewish Spiritual Practice. Saturday evening, the Hall was transformed into a Blues Venue, with a fantastic BBQ dinner, blue stage lights giving atmosphere, and some of the best Jewish Blues any of us had ever heard. Sunday morning, families and Masa students sang, clapped, and danced with Elana and Saul, joined by our own Youth Choir, to finish out this exciting weekend. Thanks to weekend sponsors JoAnn MacWilliams-Wolf, Sue Green and Jim Marks, Carol and Steve Tarnowsky and Sara and Greg Tatchio, without whom this could not have happened; Music Committee Sara Tatchio, Cindy Bolokofsky, Karen Kaczander, Evelyn Prince, Ruth Talmer, and Sue Green, whose efforts made it special; Daniel Mesa, Danielle Gordon, Lindsey Fox Wagner, Marlon Elder, and the entire staff, for all that they did to make this weekend a success; and, most importantly, to each of you who showed up, for bringing your presence and spirit, thus creating the community that we all want at TBE. – Cantor Rachel Gottlieb Kalmowitz

"I have always been a big fan of blues music, but had never imagined how well it could work when performed from a Jewish perspective. Jews can clearly relate to the historic African-American life experiences that inspired the blues genre. In addition to being two really nice people, Saul and Elana are exceptionally talented musicians that were able to channel that blues spirit to connect with the TBE congregation and guests. It was a great weekend!" - Steve Tarnowsky

ECC FAMILY CAMP

This was our second annual TBE ECC Family Camp weekend at Tamarack. We took advantage of it being the same weekend as the UofM vs. MSU rivalry football game and had a Macabia weekend. The blue team loved making up their song and cheer, and the green team excelled at kickball. Havdalah around the campfire was an excellent way to end Shabbat Saturday night with guitars, singing, and s'mores! Last year we had 6 families in attendance this year it grew to 13 families. Next year we might sell out and use all 20 rooms at Butzel. Come and join us.

"Family Camp with Temple Beth El was a wonderful experience for our family. As new members, we were able to participate firsthand with the community that is at Temple, enjoyed being with our close friends, and made new friends." - Sara Lipson

FUSED GLASS CANDLESTICKS

Local artist Gail Rosenbloom Kaplan joined us on Thursday, October 25 and helped TBE participants design their very own personalized fused glass candlesticks.

"Not only do I now have beautiful new candlesticks to use weekly in my house, but I was fortunate to spend the evening creating art alongside my mother-in-law and sister-in-law. Food, family & Judaica made for a great night!" – Jennifer Hollander

CASINO NIGHT

Sisterhood's first Casino Night was an amazing evening full of food, friends, and gambling! Congratulations go to Jeff Hollander, winner of the Texas Hold'em Tournament, and Doug Fortier, all around winner with the most money at the end of the night. Special thank you to sponsors Cindy Bolokofsky and TJ Maxx.

BOWERS FARM VISIT

All the children in our TBE ECC got a chance to visit Bowers Farm in Bloomfield Hills. We had a chance to go through the corn maze, visit with the farm animals, pick a pumpkin, and drink some delicious cider. What a perfect way to celebrate the fall weather!

LAWSON 2018 GRAND RAPIDS

and was a great weekend for everyone who attended! the Ronald McDonald House, which provides a "Home Away From Home" for families of children traveling health treatment. We cleaned everything in the house, including the kitchen, entertainment room, toys, food pantry, and garage. Another agency we visited was Kids Food Baskets, which serves western Michigan kids meals every day. They help feed 7,500 meals every meals are served every year. We were honored to be a part of it. We spent part of our afternoon making turkey other volunteers, we rolled a total of 2,400 wraps in one afternoon! Besides participating in and learning about the importance of community service and social action, we explored Grand Rapids and had a lot of fun too. From fowling (bowling with a football) to being locked all together in an escape room, we couldn't have had a more fun weekend all together. It will be hard to top, but thank you to the Lawson Family for all their support for this weekend and all you do for Temple.

LOIS SHAEVSKY

ZACH BERG AND WILLIAM WERNER MONGERS' PROVISIONS

Less than a year since they opened, Mongers' Provisions is opening an even bigger shop in Detroit on Cass and Canfield (4240 Cass Ave unit 111) at the end of November. This location allows an expanded selection of products and will also offer more events. Along with their second location they are doing a slight name change, now being known as Mongers' Provisions.

RYAN FRANK

Ryan Frank, grandson of Peggy and Dennis Frank and Elaine and Dr. Stephen Sturman, won No. 2 doubles in the Division 1 state tennis championship as Bloomfield Hills High School took the boys tennis crown for the third time in four years. Also, Ryan was selected as a 2018 Wendy's High School Heisman School Winner! Only 7,500 students nationally are named school winners out of 42,000 applicants.

LOIS SHAEVSKY

WJR Radio has named Bloomfield Hills resident Lois Shaevsky, President of the Board of Directors of Variety, The Children's Charity, one of 12 "Women Who Lead" for 2018. Nominated by WJR listeners, who were asked to honor women in the Great Lakes area making a difference. Shaevsky was honored during a special broadcast of WJR's Paul W. Smith Show on October 26th. A longtime community volunteer, Shaevsky leads the Board for Variety, who has helped children with a variety of needs in Metro Detroit since 1932. Mongers' Provisions will also be adding new items like olive oils, jam, olives, dried fruit, and books on cheese and chocolate to the space. The store will also serve as a retail location for Farm Field Table to sell both fresh and frozen meats.

We are so proud of Ryan and our State Champion, Black Hawks!

Lois began her service to Variety in 1985. She is currently serving a two-year term as President. SHARE YOUR SIMCHAS

SETH STERN

Seth Stern, grandson of member Sheldon Stern, graduated high school earlier this year and joined the Marines. He recently completed the initial training program and was awarded a medal for marksmanship. His family is very proud of his accomplishment and his service.

EARL REMER, CHAIR, JERRY KLINE, MARK SEGEL, SHELDON STERN, AND CHUCK ZAMEK

Have Challah, will travel...to the West Bloomfield Nursing Center. Every Friday afternoon at 4 pm, a Temple Beth El Brotherhood volunteer conducts Shabbat services for the residents. The prayer book was compiled by Alan Lowen some 7 years ago and has been in weekly use ever since. Challah is brought by the volunteers and the electric candlelight, juice substituting for the wine, and other necessities are supplied by the nursing center. Tracy Ostasiewicz, Activities Director, relates, "Our Jewish residents look forward to the Shabbat services each Friday and to the friendliness and knowledge of the volunteers who spend sacred moments with us."

GIVE. SHARE. GROW. Your participation is critical in > helping us meet the needs of our thriving congregation.

On behalf of our clergy, staff, and Board, we hope you enjoyed your High Holiday season and, once again, wish you a sweet and healthy year in 5779. Our Beth El team continuously strives to make our Temple modern and relevant, while keeping hold of our rich traditions and Jewish roots. Our year is filled with exciting programs and education, meaningful worship and musical events, neighborhood outreach, social gatherings, and so much more ... TBE's future is bright!

As members of Temple's Executive Committee, it is our goal to maintain the financial resources necessary to support all the inspiring opportunities taking place here. Membership dues are vital, but they only cover approximately one-third of our costs. Each year we turn to you, our Temple family, to help us meet the needs of our thriving congregation.

This year, we would be grateful if you could join us in supporting Temple with a gift to the Annual Appeal. By now, you should have received your Annual Appeal Letter and pledge card (see side bar) in the mail. Simply complete your pledge card and send it back in the return envelope provided.

We feel extremely honored to serve this historic congregation, and look forward to a year of growth, innovation, kindness, and holiness.

If you have any questions about the Annual Appeal or Temple in general, feel free to contact our new Executive Director, Daniel Mesa, at dmesa@tbeonline.org or 248.865.0636.

For special arrangements or to pay in monthly installments please call CFO, Claire Danaher at 248.865.0617.

THANK YOU IN ADVANCE FOR YOUR GENEROSITY

STORIES ARE POWERFUL.

They give us an opportunity to learn from one another, build knowledge and understanding, and to deepen the relationships that matter most to us.

DON'T MISS a remarkable evening at Temple, as we present four talks by members of our community that are sure to inspire, entertain, and leave you ready to take important steps to improve your life.

At TBE, we are dedicated to making Judaism relevant and meaningful in our lives. Each of us is on a personal journey, and Temple is a place for us to come together and learn important strategies for success. We hope you will be here for an evening filled with wisdom, humor, advice, and passion.
