Tu B'Shevat-Wednesday, February 4th

Tu B'Shevat or the "New Year of the Trees" is Jewish Arbor Day.

The holiday is observed on the 15th of the Hebrew month of Shevat. Scholars believe that originally Tu B'Shevat was an agricultural festival, marking the emergence of spring. In the 17th century, Kabbalists created a ritual for Tu B'Shevat that is similar to a Passover seder. Today, many Jews hold a modern version of the Tu B'Shevat seder each year. The holiday also has become a tree-planting festival in Israel, in which Israelis and Jews around the world plant trees in honor or in memory of loved ones and friends.

Observe Tu B'Shevat with your family:

- Watch "A Tale for Tu B'Shvat" from G-dcast: <http://www.g-dcast.com/tu-bshvat/>
- Eat fruit from the land of Israel, like olives, dates, figs, carob and pomegranates!
- Plant a tree or small garden outside or on the windowsill.
- Talk about Tikkun olam, or repairing the world. Everyone can take care of their little corner of the world and help make it beautiful. Inspire your child to say, "I'm small, but I can make a big difference in the world!" Discuss ways your family can help repair the world.

Rabbi's Message

A Congregation for Generations

by Rabbi Mark Miller

"Our rabbis repeatedly introduced innovations to modern Jewish life. Our members have been vibrant leaders on the local, regional, and national level."

The world was a much different place 165 years ago. In 1850, our nation had not yet descended into civil war. We were closer to the writing of the Constitution than to the First World War. Television, blue jeans, cars, airplanes, the telephone, the light bulb, cotton candy, basketball, and even toilet paper had not yet been invented! And only a trickle of Jews had started coming to America in search of something better.

In 1850, only a few hundred Jews lived in the entire state of Michigan. They were spread across Kalamazoo, Grand Rapids, Bay City, and, of course, Detroit. Wherever they settled, Jews were trying to figure out how to adapt from life in the shtetl to life in this huge, open country. And when enough Jews found themselves in the same vicinity, they naturally sought out the comfort and joy of community. Which is why those original families sat together in the living room of Sarah and Isaac Cozens 165 years ago and formed Temple Beth El.

Since then, our congregation has grown, adapted, and changed. We are a founding member of the Union for Reform Judaism (originally the Union of American Hebrew Congregations) in 1873. Our rabbis repeatedly introduced innovations to modern Jewish life. Our members have been vibrant leaders on the local, regional, and national level.

Today, our goal remains as it always has been - to celebrate our luminous past, as we build an even brighter future. Throughout 2015, Temple will offer a widening range of events, opportunities, and moments to share. And watch for details about a magnificent TBE165 Gala in the fall ... we hope you will join us!

For now, I encourage you to choose at least one Shabbat, educational opportunity, or chance to volunteer with Temple. We have so much to be proud of and so much to achieve as a community, but we can only succeed together.

I look forward to seeing you soon,

Rabbi Mark Miller

Ellin & Harold Lawson Youth Institute Weekend

We had an incredible adventure at the 18th Annual Lawson Youth Institute!

We are so grateful to Mrs. Ellin Lawson for her generous support that allows for Lawson Youth Institute to happen each year. Thank you so much from your "grandchildren," Mrs. Lawson!

Over Martin Luther King Jr. weekend, Rabbi Miller, Rachel Rudman and Sam Jahr took 29 7-12th graders up north for TBE's 18th annual Ellin & Harold Lawson Youth Institute! We had an incredible adventure: we stayed at Camp Daggett on Walloon Lake, tubed at Boyne Mountain Tube Park, splashed at Avalanche Bay Waterpark, skied and snowboarded at Boyne Mountain and bonded through community building activities. On MLK day, we went to Mt. Olive Missionary Baptist Church in Flint to participate in their 11th Annual Youth Salute to a King service. It was an eye opening experience for all of us as we learned more about issues facing the black community through poetry, music, spoken word performances and a sermon. This experience broke down boundaries between our teens and their peers in Flint, giving space for thoughtful and productive discussion with Youth Pastor Reverend Moses Bingham about how we can be most useful in the struggle today.

TEENS - STAY TUNED FOR UPCOMING YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETY (YPS) EVENTS, INCLUDING:

Volunteering at the Purim Carnival, lock-in (overnight) at Temple Beth El, volunteering in Detroit with Peercorps, and dinner and movie in Benton's Place. Contact Rachel Rudman or anyone on the YPS board if you want to help plan or organize an event!

2014 Annual Campaign Contributions

Dear congregants,

On behalf of the Board of Trustees, the clergy and the staff of Temple Beth El, I wanted to personally thank everyone who contributed to the 2014 Annual Appeal.

I am happy to report that we raised $131,669 from 50 first time donors, 41 members who increased their pledge from last year, and an overall 10.7% increase in total dollars raised over 2013. Furthermore, we had 100% board & clergy participation.

I know that everyone can feel the renewed sense of exuberance in the air at Temple. Your contribution allows us to build and expand on this positive energy, and allow a wide range of new and exciting initiatives to take place.

The Temple's Annual Appeal has become an increasingly important source of revenue to underwrite many of the services we provide to our congregation. Your participation is a meaningful gesture which, in conjunction with the generosity of other members, allows us to continue to provide the diversity of programs and events that define our institution.

Thank you again for your contribution. Best wishes for a happy and healthy 2015.

Temple Beth El and the Cathedral Church of Saint Paul Ring in the New Year with Good Deeds

Congregants join to Feed Detroit's Hungry!

It is now a decade since volunteers from Temple Beth El first joined with congregants from the Cathedral Church of St. Paul in lending a hand to feed Detroit's hungry. During those 10 years, the menu for the church's holiday feast changed and the event moved from Christmas to New Year's Day. However, the poor and hungry still remain with us and we are directed as Jews to aid them.

Distribution of the prepared holiday meal expanded this year beyond just the hungry men, women and children who sought food. The multi-course feast was also provided to first responders on-duty on New Year's as a "thank you" for their often thankless and unappreciated labors. Food also went to homeless shelters which didn't supply their residents a hot meal.

This year's participants included Larry and Miriam Imerman, Steve Kaplan, Walter Shapero and Kathleen Strauss, Jeff and Lenien Jenks, Bill and Laura Couger, Mike and Wendy Sorenson and Elizabeth and Dana Gulick.

The project has evolved into the best type of interfaith activity—one where participants from different faith communities come together to help those less fortunate, and in so doing, form a close bond of fellowship. At the end of the morning's activities, the volunteers bid each other farewell and good wishes for the New Year.

Preserving History and Providing Resources

Donations to the Archives' Collection Safeguarded in Perpetuity

by Jan Durecki, Archivist

RABBI LEO M. FRANKLIN ARCHIVES

Archives Committee member Jon Haber has donated a collection of family photographs, documents and artifacts to the Archives. Over the years, Jon served as his family's historian, carefully collecting the materials. However the flooding that struck his neighborhood last August convinced him that his basement was the worst possible place for such precious treasures. The materials will be organized, catalogued and preserved in the Archives' controlled environment. They will be added to the existing Haber/Michelson Collection (XXXX.302). I invite you to follow Jon's lead and place your family's story in this centralized repository where it can be easily accessed and it will be safeguarded in perpetuity.

"Our Freedom Is Not Free"

THE JEWISH WAR VETERANS OF MICHIGAN ARCHIVES

At the suggestion of congregant Lucille Miller, Major Irving Steinberg, WWII Army Major (1941-1947), has donated a copy of "Our Freedom Is Not Free" – a poem that he recently wrote in honor of Veterans Day. It will be added to the Jewish War Veterans of Michigan Archives that are maintained here in the Rabbi Leo M. Franklin Archives. The poem was compiled by his adoring granddaughter Stephanie Steinberg. His poem begins with his own horrifying experiences on the beaches of Normandy. He also recounts that his troops did not have enough warm footwear so they removed the boots of dead enemy soldiers. His generation of soldiers can now only offer support as new and violent foes threaten our world. He calls for this generation to respond to the threat and also for a coalition to "nail down [the violent foe's] doom."

Irv is 96 years old and is among the few remaining alumni who can remember Wayne University in its very early years as "Old Main." He recalls the Tartar football team's tough 6-0 loss to M.S.U and coaches Gembis, Ertell, Wann and Meyers. Irv is facing serious health challenges, but devotes himself to maintaining an active life style. He also publishes a bi-monthly newsletter that is distributed to more than 150 fellow residents in his living facility.

*The days are getting longer and it's still cold outside.
It is the perfect time of the year to curl up with a good book!*

ADULT NON-FICTION

Sister Mother Husband Dog, etc. by Delia Ephron. In this collection, Delia Ephron brings her trademark wit and effervescent prose to a series of autobiographical essays about life, love, sisterhood, movies, and family.

ADULT FICTION

Tel Aviv Noir edited by Etgar Keret & Assaf Gavron. "Tel Aviv is a lovely, safe city. Most of the time, for most of its inhabitants. But the stories in this collection describe what happens the rest of the time, to the rest of its inhabitants."

The Winter Guest by Pam Jenoff. The Winter Guest takes us to the darkest places in Poland during the Nazi regime, making the fear and horror real through twins Helena and Ruth, who face awful decisions to protect themselves, their orphaned family, and their own hearts."

PICTURE BOOKS

The Kissing Hand by Audrey Penn. This classic story will help to calm the fears of any young child who faces starting school and being away from home for the first time.

Chicken Man by Michelle Edwards. The summer Rody works in the chicken coop at Kibbutz Hanan, the hens lay more eggs than ever; he is so happy with his job that the other kibbutzniks call him Chicken Man and believe his to be the best job around. But while Rody is cheerful regardless of his assignments in the customary job rotation, the chickens miss him so much they stop laying eggs. All is well after he convinces the work committee to assign him permanently to the coop.

The Bedtime Sh'ma: A Good Night Book by Sarah Gershman. In December I recommended a book about getting up and starting a new day, Boker Tov. The Bedtime Sh'ma is a lovely book to read at bedtime.
