PARTNERS FOR PEACE

I've been to Israel many times, but never like this. When I was invited to participate in a special trip organized by Israel Partners for Peace (a program of the Jewish Federations of North America's "Israel Action Network"), it sounded like a fascinating opportunity to see Israel through a different lens, since we would be traveling as a group of rabbis partnered with African-American pastors.

RABBI MILLER WITH PASTOR ARAMIS AND OTHER PARTICIPANTS

For example, a stop at Yardenit – where the Sea of Galilee flows into the Jordan River – became a powerful moment for some of our pastors to baptize themselves in the same place where their tradition says Jesus was himself baptized. Instead of simply noticing that there may be an intellectual connection between baptism and our Jewish practice of mikveh, I shared in the deep emotional impact on my good friend, Pastor Aramis Hinds, who traveled with me from Breakers Covenant Church International (in our old TBE building at Woodward/Gladstone).

LEARNING FROM JEWISH, ETHIOPIAN POLITICIANS

we met two women who are successful politicians – Belneyesh Zevedya, who served as Israel's ambassador to Ethiopia, and Mehereta Baruch-Ron, currently the Deputy Mayor of Tel Aviv. Both were smart, engaging, and thoughtful representatives of their community.

PASTOR ARAMIS, MAYOR DUGGAN, AND RABBI MILLER AT THE WESTERN WALL

Our week was filled with occasions to learn from impressive local activists and leaders, and to better understand what this holy land means to each of us. From the Galilee to Jerusalem, from the Church of the Holy Sepulchre to the Western Wall

(where we had the truly Israeli experience of randomly bumping into someone from home – none other than our own Detroit Mayor Mike Duggan!) ... I felt like we were taking advantage of a unique opportunity to find common ground in each of our striving to support the Israel we love so deeply.

As we debriefed the session, one of the pastors said, "I know you all think they're Jewish, but really they're black." And without hesitating, I responded, "Actually, you may think they're black, but really they're Jewish ... and we're both right." This arduous discussion lasted throughout the trip. It was both invigorating and somewhat agonizing to delve deeply into the complex nature of identity, pride, otherness, and narrative – all within the context of how, as American Jewish and Christian leaders, we can build stronger relationships at home.

Israel has always been more than a place – it is an ideal. And this particular experience will provide yet another foundation upon which to continue building vibrant Jewish life right here at Temple, and across our city.

Rabbi MARK MILLER
mmiller@tbeonline.org

Perhaps the most affecting facet of our trip was a full day spent among the Ethiopian Jewish community. At one point,

SISTERHOOD

Women who find themselves homeless shouldn't have to worry about finding bras!

Now through March 16 we will be collecting gently used clean or NEW bras for women of Hope Hospitality and Warming Center. Donation box will be located in the main office at Temple.

HOPE's adult shelter provides dinner, triage healthcare, showers, access to resources that can be a pathway out of homelessness, and, of course, overnight shelter.

The Prentis Memorial Library looks a bit different this year! At the end of 2017, using the plan created by the library committee, a team of committee members, temple staff, and volunteers moved books, stacks, and furniture in the library to create an open and welcoming space for visitors. Throughout 2018, new paint, a Smart TV, new furniture for the children's section, and new toys all contributed to make our vision to create that special space for all our congregants and community members come true. We wanted to shed a new light on this amazing resource at Temple and open the doors so everyone can come and enjoy this comfortable space to relax, learn, engage, and feel even more connected as a TBE family. Looking back on our 140th year as the Temple library, the Prentis Memorial Library is excited to share some of the wonderful events that took place in our fresh space. A special Thank You! to the incredibly supportive clergy, staff, committee members, Friends of the Library, and volunteers that helped make our special anniversary so successful! Here's to 140 more wonderful years serving our congregation with a comfortable space and opportunities for the curious minds!

If you are interested in becoming a Friend of the Library, contact Laura Williams, Curator at lwilliams@tbeonline.org or 248.851.1100.

MASA SCAVENGER HUNT

ECC READING

ATING 140 YEARS!

LOOKING BACK

Last year, the library saw a successful continuation of many of its regular programs as well as some new additions! Library programs included:

- ECC joined Laura in the library for a special story time, songs, and learning about upcoming Jewish holidays. Sometimes, we even had a special guest come to read!
- Masa heard stories on Sundays and took out Jewish books to take home.
- Bites & Books program continued with five interesting titles that invoked thoughtful discussion with our participants.

NEW

Movies & Munchies, where viewers enjoyed and discussed the movie of the month with Chuck Broh.

NEW

Bead & Feed engaged participants in workshops where we learned new skills and walked away with beautiful beaded pieces!

- Library Launch Event introduced MASA students to the new look and layout of the library with a special storytime with Sammy Spider and for the older kids, a scavenger hunt for book titles and facts with prizes.

All these events don't even cover all the other things that go on in the library that kept it hustling and bustling all year round. Some of these included:

NEW

Reflection Room for High Holidays. Rabbi Brudney converted the library into a self-reflection oasis for congregants to relax and meditate during those special days.

- Special Author visit for the ECC.

- Masoret (Adult education) used the new Smart TV to enhance a presentation.
- Knitting, Crafts and Laughs
- Shiva Corps Training
- Kid-ish Club Hanukkah Program
- Library, Archives, Education, ECC, and Executive Committee meetings all used the new layout for their meetings.
- Sisterhood Rosh Chodesh
- Torah and Hebrew classes Wednesday mornings
- Torah study Saturday mornings
- Minyan Sunday mornings

THANK YOU TO OUR FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY FOR 2018-2019!

MEET OUR STAFF

HIGHLIGHTS

KEN JACKSON Security

Tell me about yourself.

I was born and raised in Detroit and went to Detroit Public Schools. I have a wife, Michelle, and three children – Kenneth, 38, Chris, 35, and Ayeisha, 29 – and four grandchildren. I have a BA in Criminal Justice and an MA in Group Work and Administration from Eastern Michigan University, and a BA in Religious Education and an MA in Theology from Tennessee State University. I also have a Doctorate in Divinity. I was a police officer in Detroit for 30 years specializing in narcotics investigations. I retired from the force in 2008, and since then, have worked in executive protection (protection for dignitaries). In the summer months I also do security at the Jewish Community Center.

Most of my time outside of work is devoted to my church, Greater Grace Temple in Detroit, where I am a pastor and the Director of Outreach. In my ministry we serve the homeless by providing clothing and food as well as offering prayer. I'm the director of a 24-hour prayer line where people across the country can connect with someone in prayer over the phone. I also teach men's classes every Sunday on biblical studies and becoming men of God. In my spare time I help seniors in my church community by driving them to run errands.

What's your favorite biblical verse?

My favorite biblical verse is housed in the 24th chapter of Joshua. In this chapter, the Lord's covenant is renewed. Joshua summons all the tribes of Israel to Shechem, including their Elders, leaders, Judges, and officers. After presenting themselves to God, Joshua recounts all the blessings that God has bestowed upon them, and says, therefore, that the people should "fear the Lord and serve Him wholeheartedly." He suggests to them to put away forever the idols that their ancestors worshipped – and to serve the Lord alone. Joshua goes on to say, "But if you refuse to serve the Lord, then choose today whom you will serve... but as for me and my family, we will serve the Lord."

It's very important for us all to remember how good God has been to us. When we make the choice to abandon the Lord and worship idols and serve other gods, we risk being directed down the wrong path and being destroyed. This account in Joshua is so relevant even today. It's a reminder to us that serving God is a choice – a choice that we must actively make each day.

What do you do in your free time?

I'm an avid bowler and I'm in several bowling leagues. My highest score is 288. My wife and I also travel frequently to see our grandchildren.

What's your favorite food?

I'm a pescatarian, so I don't eat meat but I do love seafood. Salmon is my favorite.

How long have you worked at Temple?

I started working at Temple in August of 2014.

What do you like about working at Temple?

I love the friendships I've made with my coworkers and members here. I love hearing from members, teachers, parents and children that they feel safe when they're here. I always keep in my heart that this is your place of worship, and that even though there is security, the fact that this is a place of worship must be respected. Our team – Morris, Donzelle, William and myself – we always have a smile on our face. We want you to feel comfortable here knowing that if anything happens we'll take care of it. It's a real pleasure working with the Temple Beth El community.

DAMON KAIGLER Maintenance

Tell me about yourself.

I was born and raised in Detroit. I come from a big family – I'm one of eleven children. I have 5 sisters and 5 brothers, and I'm number 8. I graduated from Hamtramck High School in 1986. My family is pretty religious and I've always been involved in the Baptist church. I have a son, Damon Jr, 28, and two daughters, Carol, 30, and Deajai, 29. I have one grandson, Charles, and he is my heart. I love living in Detroit, I appreciate the diversity and, with all the changes downtown, it just feels like a happy environment. I like to joke around and make people laugh.

What do you do in your free time?

I'm really close with my family – I spend time with family members that live locally and I catch up with my brothers who live out of state every week. I work out every morning at 5am. I also like to bike ride and take vacations, especially cruises. I go to church and do charity work with veterans, too. I'm also a great dancer – just ask Daniel Mesa!

What's your favorite food?

Cooked. Just kidding. Lasagna.

Do you have a favorite biblical passage?

Psalm 23 – the Lord is my shepherd...

I feel like this psalm has been present throughout my life. I like the message of protectiveness, and it makes me feel connected to my father who also loved this psalm.

How long have you worked at Temple?

It will be 15 years in April.

What do you like about working at Temple?

I like being the funny prankster here, and I like that no one can actually prank me. Maybe if the staff and the members get together they can! I like knowing the members well and joking around together. I also had the honor of being a Mitzvah Model a few years back which was great. I like coming to work everyday – it's a nice environment and good people.

This presentation discusses the importance of our mental health. Participants will learn about common illnesses, suicide risks, and how to promote their mental health.

27 BITES AND BOOKS Einstein and the Rabbi

By Naomi Levy
WED. FEBRUARY 27
10:00 AM/7:00 PM

Facilitated by Rabbi Mark Miller. This author and rabbi's profoundly affecting exploration of the meaning and purpose of the soul was inspired by the correspondence between Albert Einstein and a grieving rabbi. When Rabbi Levy came across this letter by Einstein it shook her to her core. Einstein's words perfectly captured what she has come to believe about the human condition: That we are intimately connected, and that we are blind to this truth. Levy wondered what had elicited such spiritual wisdom from a man of science? Thus began a three-year search into the mystery of Einstein's letter, and into the mystery of the human soul.

GREETINGS FROM THE EXECUTIVE OFFICE

In the five months I've been at Temple I've gotten to know many of you at programs, events, and services. You have warmly welcomed my family, and I've begun to hear your stories, feel your pride in your community, and connect with many of you. It's been wonderful celebrating Temple's bright future together.

It's clear that our members really show up for their community - I've been impressed by attendance at events and programs, and I'm overwhelmed by your generosity in this year's Annual Appeal. I want to thank each of you who made a donation. Large or small, every contribution matters and makes an impact. This year we're proud that we have many first time donors, and that many families who haven't given in years have chosen to give once again. Thank you again, truly, for supporting our community and ensuring Temple's future.

I look forward to creating many more memories with you.

DANIEL MESA

PURIM

Purim is the joyous holiday that celebrates the rescue of the Jews of Persia from annihilation. Along with reading the biblical Book of Esther (often called the megillah) on Purim, we dress up in costumes, share a festive meal, give gifts to our friends, and money to those in need.

On Purim we eat hamantaschen, triangular cookies with a filling. Hamantaschen means Haman's pockets, and various legends connect the triangular pastries with Haman's hat, ears, and pockets. Finally, a festive meal at home closes the holiday. It is traditional to serve alcohol, as well as a sumptuous feast, at this meal.

ON PURIM, ALL JEWS ARE REQUIRED TO FULFILL THE FOUR PURIM MITZVOT:

- Two readings of the Megillah (Scroll of Esther - Mikrah Megillah)
- Festive meal (Seudah Purim)
- Gifts of food to friends (Mishloach Manot)
- Charity to the poor (Matanot l'Evyonim)

HANUKKAH MUSIC SHABBAT!

Over 300 people came to celebrate at our Hanukkah Music Shabbat! Our Kid-ish Club started the night with a special meet up and joined the congregation for the Temple-Wide menorah lighting. After a beautiful service, which included the TBE Youth Choir and our Music Shabbat band, the celebration continued in Handleman Hall with latkes, dreidel decorating, and our third annual dreidel competition.

HAVDALAPALOOZA — HILLEL DAY SCHOOL

More than 400 members of our broader Jewish Community came together on Saturday, January 12 at Hillel Day School for Havdalapalooza, a new initiative that brought together many partner organizations to celebrate the transition into a new week, with song, food, and fun activity stations. Temple Beth El was well-represented, as Cantor Rachel Gottlieb Kalmowitz led the song session and Havdalah blessings with other area cantors and rabbis, the TBE donut decorating table, under the supervision of Director of Youth Engagement, Scott Lowen, was one of the most popular stations, and many of our members participated in this lively and warm event.

BETY35 BOWLING OUTING

On Sunday, December 16, BETY35 traveled to Langan's Bowling in Farmington Hills for a fun afternoon of bowling, pizza, and good times with friends.

JBETY DEFY DETROIT ADVENTURE

On Saturday, December 1, our JBETY students from grades 6–8 enjoyed a fun night out at Defy Detroit! Defy Detroit is a trampoline park like none other that features over 35 trampolines, including the famous angled wall trampolines, launching decks and a ninja warrior course. Hope to see everyone at our next event!

LANGUAGE OF THE JEWISH PEOPLE

MASA

Over the last several years, reimagining our Hebrew language program in Masa has been a high priority. When I arrived four years ago, our program was very traditional; we started teaching the decoding of letters and vowels in the primary grades and retaught it year after year. I was familiar with a Jewish educator and curriculum specialist from Cleveland, Nachama Skolnik Moskowitz, who had a different vision for Jewish Hebrew education that I wanted to introduce here at Beth El. Introducing all of these components has changed the focus of our Hebrew learning. Our TBE Masa students go home saying that Hebrew is fun, and they feel more connected to the language of the Jewish people.

DEBORAH MOROSOHK Director of Education
dmorosohk@tbeonline.org

Those principles include:

- Hebrew learning should be joyful and communal. Language learning need not bring tears. Through the Hebrew through Movement program, students can learn modern Hebrew and Jewish heritage and synagogue words in a fun, age appropriate way.
- Students should pray regularly to gain competence and confidence with synagogue Hebrew. It's ok (and why shouldn't it be) for students to learn prayers by heart and to use all tools available to them to understand the Siddur.
- Languages are learned from sound-to-print. Just like learning to read English, students must hear Hebrew regularly, and be familiar with it, to be able to "read"/decode it. The recommendation is 5 years of exposure prior to teaching decoding.
- Hebrew decoding should be delayed until at least 5th or 6th grade. We are making a hard task almost impossible by asking them to differentiate letters too early in their development; students need exposure to Hebrew not decoding at a young age.

In order to achieve these goals, our program at TBE includes:

- Hebrew Through Movement for grades K-6. In these classes you will find our students standing, jumping, spinning, pointing, and having a great time, in response to commands given by their teacher, all in Hebrew.
- T'filah (services). Students participate in age appropriate t'filot every week which include prayers and music. They learn the prayers by hearing them, singing along, and participating in discussions on their significance.
- Jewish Life Vocabulary. We use Hebrew throughout Masa. Students go to Omanut (art) are in Kitah Hay (5th grade) and are praised with a hearty Kol Hakavod (great job).
- Decoding. We removed decoding from our Masa program and moved it to B'nai Mitzvah Club which begins in 5th Grade. When our 5th graders learn to decode with Hebrew consonants and vowels, they now have a variety of Hebrew experiences to draw on, so they recognize many of the words they are reading.

MENORAH CONTEST

On Monday December 3rd, our Masa Teens in grades 8-12 had a special Hanukkah program. We studied some texts about the significance of the Hanukkah menorah and then divided the students up into five groups to create their own creative Hanukkiot. We gave them a variety of pieces of pvc pipe, joints, and connectors and said, "Go!". They were creative, resourceful, and exhibited great teamwork. It was a great way to celebrate the second night of Hanukkah together!

L'TAKEN TRIP

TBE 10th Graders had an amazing experience at the L'taken Conference with the Religious Action Center of Reform Judaism (RAC). They interacted with hundreds of teens from all over the country, learned about multiple issues on the agenda at the RAC, and chose to research and speak about the issues of Immigration Reform and Criminal Justice Reform to our Michigan members of Congress. We didn't let a partial government shutdown, or a snowstorm get in the way of a fabulous weekend!

THE POWER OF FAITH IN AMERICA

How Religion Strengthens our Democracy

FEATURING RACHEL LASER

President and CEO of Americans United for Separation of Church and State

Each year, Temple Beth El hosts the Glazer Institute as an interfaith forum to build relationships, learn from one another, and take vital steps toward creating a stronger community across Metro Detroit. This year, we will focus on a current and complex question: how does the American model of separating church and state provide us, as religious leaders, with a profound opportunity to impact society in a positive way?

Our Glazer Institute is the longest-running Interfaith Institute in the country, celebrating Temple Beth El's historic and growing commitment to interfaith relations. It is free and open to the community.

SOULFUL MUSIC.
THOUGHTFUL PRAYER.
CHALLENGING IDEAS.

Thank you Dr. and Mrs. Gilbert and Ruth Plotnik for donating the beautiful flower arrangements for our Maas Chapel.

The perfect ending to any Shabbat service ... enjoying food with one another.

Please consider supporting this festive gathering with a donation to the Oneg/Kiddush Fund.

To sponsor an Oneg or Kiddush, contact Laura Lucassian at 248.851.1100 or llucassian@tbeonline.org.
