2016 promises to be another interesting year,
as issues of race and religion and politics take center stage.
While Temple Beth El is a spiritual home and a place to celebrate our Jewish tradition, it is also a place to engage in the important conversations of the day.
We have a long history of building constructive relationships with our neighbors, based on mutual understanding and trust.

events centered around current events. We are starting the year with an exciting special*

JOACHIM PRINZ I SHALL NOT BE SILENT

Link for the documentary trailer <http://youtu.be/8Hw8N2XF6Hk>

We'll watch Joachim Prinz: I Shall Not be Silent, a documentary about the leading rabbi in 1930s Berlin who immigrated to America. Rabbi Prinz became one of Martin Luther King Jr's closest confidantes and spoke just prior to him at the March on Washington at the Lincoln Memorial in 1963.

Members of Christ Church Cranbrook are invited to join us for this special occasion.

Rabbi Prinz' address has been widely acclaimed throughout the history of the Civil Rights movement and is remembered for its contention that in the face of discrimination, "the most urgent, the most disgraceful, the most shameful and the most tragic problem is... silence." In this time of racial tension in our country, Rabbi Prinz is a leading example of empathy and taking action in the face of prejudice. Join us for this powerful and relevant film and discussion.

THE JOURNEY TO social justice

Last month, TBE 8th-12th graders traveled to Detroit for a fun and meaningful Lawson Youth Institute trip. We partnered with Jewish social justice organization Repair the World for a weekend of service in our own city. We volunteered at Earth Works urban garden, learned about foreclosure from a local group working to keep Detroiters in their homes, and served lunch at a soup kitchen to families that don't have enough to eat. We learned about Detroit's history as we explored the old Packard Plant, and about Detroit's future as we hung out with people living and working in Detroit. We are excited about our new relationships: with other teens at TBE, with our peers in Detroit, and with the city of Detroit itself. We look forward to continuing to build our new friendships and newfound compassion for Detroit.

Thank you, Ellin Lawson, for your support of a wonderful weekend of service in Detroit with the Lawson Youth Institute.

TBE 7TH GRADERS VOLUNTEER IN DETROIT SOUP KITCHENS

On November 22nd, as part of our ongoing 7th grade religious school program, our TBE 7th graders served lunch at soup kitchens in Detroit. They assisted in preparing the meals, serving food, cleaning up, and most importantly, building relationships with recipients, staff and one another. We were grateful for the opportunity to serve those in need in our greater community.

CLEANUP at

On November 22, our TBE Detroit Team gathered at our former Temple home at WOODWARD & GLADSTONE in Detroit for our bi-monthly Cleanup Day with members of Breakers Covenant Church.

We continued working on the ongoing project of replacing seats in the Sanctuary with those in good condition. But this month something new happened: a group of Breakers and TBE youth gathered around the piano and started to play together! Pretty soon they had created a beautiful song session, complete with singing and dancing. Though the piano was out of tune, differences between TBE and Breakers members disappeared through the common language of music. This is what the TBE Detroit Team is all about: building relationships, finding common language, and working together for the greater good.

*Thank you to everyone who bought a gift or brought a toy for our Adopt a Family and Toy Drive collections last month. Jewish Family Services and TBE appreciate your generosity.
It's a wonderful mitzvah to help those in need in your community.*

Lights, Camera, Action – Jewish connections to Michigan's Motion Picture & Commercial Film Industry

My recent Lights, Camera, Action presentation focused upon three areas: Film Exchange businesses, theatre ownership and architecture, and commercial companies specifically Ford Motor Company's Educational Weeklies, the Jam Handy Corporation, and the Metropolitan Motion Picture Company. The importance of the Film Exchange business to Michigan's early film industry has been largely forgotten. Located in Detroit, these companies were responsible for distributing movies throughout the state. They operated out of fire proof buildings that were designed to mitigate the dangers highly flammable nitrate film. During our research we found that the majority of these companies were Jewish – owned, often by members of TBE. Also overlooked has been the important part that Detroit played in the commercial film industry – largely driven by the growth of the automobile industry. The Metropolitan Motion Picture Company was owned by two members of the congregation: Maurice J. and Arthur A. Caplan. Maurice and his wife Louise Van Baalen Caplan did not have any children. Arthur Caplan was married to Rose. Their children were David (Carole), Stanley (Tobi) and Rhoda Lou (Ben) Aronsohn. Stanley and Tobi's children are Arthur (Frances) and Laura Ann (Clifford) Deremo. Arthur and Rose's grandchildren are Nancy, Jane and Arthur Caplan, Isabelle Aronsohn and Laura Deremo.

After Arthur's death (1942), Rose widow married Abraham Hayden in 1946. Rose and Abraham were involved with Metropolitan Motion Picture Company until 1953. It appears that the company was dissolved in 1954. At this time, we have been unable to locate any of the company's records. Maurice and Arthur were visionaries in commercial film production and their story is certainly worth further exploration and preservation. If you can help in the "hunt" for the Caplans and their company, please contact me at 248-865-0628 or farchives@tbeonline.org.

I want to thank Dr. Robert and Joan M. Jampel for their continued support of the Jewish History Detectives Lecture series. Without them this valuable look at Jewish history at the local and state level would not be possible. I also want to thank the archives' volunteers who helped in the research: Suzi MacWilliams, Barbara Grant, Jane Billecke, and Andrea Gallucci. Also Elayne Gross, owner of Elayne Gross Photography, who captured the evening with outstanding camerawork. Lastly, I want to thank Brenda Zales who told me about her father Irving Belinsky - owner of the Clawson and other local theatres. She provided a personal glimpse into her dad's passion for the movie business which enriched our understanding of local theatre owners and their impact on our leisure hours.

Dr. Robert and Joan M. Jampel

BAGELS & BOOKS BITES & BOOKS

On Monday, February 15 we will meet to discuss The Boys in the Boat by Daniel James Brown.

1936 was a momentous year in modern history: Depression, Dust Bowl, and the Berlin Olympics. Brown brings that era into focus through the remarkable true story of the United States crew team who competed in Berlin. Facilitated by Debbie Morosohk, RJE, TBE Director of Education.

Bagels & Books meets at 10 am in the Prentis Memorial Library.

Bites & Books meets at 7 pm in the Alpert Room. The series is $30 ($25 for members of Friends of the Prentis Memorial Library and Sisterhood of TBE). There is a $10/session drop-in fee.

I hope everyone had a wonderful holiday season, but now it is back to work through the dark days of winter. There are lots of books in the Library, old and new, to help brighten your days.

ADULT FICTION

Visible City by Tova Mirvis. Bestselling author, Tova Mirvis (The Ladies Auxiliary, The Outside World) explores the boundaries between our own lives and the lives of others, and conjures an unforgettable portrait of a New York teeming with buried treasures.

The Seven Good Years by Etgar Keret. Told in short (very short) stories, this is a memoir by Israel's leading humorist of the seven years between the birth of his son and the death of his father.

PICTURE BOOKS

The Only One Club by Jane Naliboff. Jennifer Jacobs is the only Jewish child in her class. How do the other children feel when she starts the "Only One Club"?

A Mezuzah on the Door by Amy Meltzer. When Noah's family moves from a noisy apartment in the city to a quiet suburban home he finds he misses all his neighbors. When they come to help the family put up a mezuzah, he realizes they will always be with him.

More information or for reservations contact Eileen Polk, Librarian at epolk@tbeonline or 248.865.0627 with questions or comments.

We ask you to consider helping maintain this festive atmosphere with a donation to the Oneg/Kiddush Fund to help defray the costs when there is no sponsor. Your gift will be recognized in the monthly Bulletin and at services.

Temple Beth El is a Caring Community!

Temple is a place where we celebrate happy moments together, and support one another in difficult times. Beginning in January, we have a trained group of volunteers who are ready to visit other Temple members in the hospital or at home.

Please let Temple know when you or a loved one is in need of care by contacting the Rabbi's study (248-865-0602 or llucassian@tbeonline.org) or by writing to Caring@tbeonline.org – we will respond with compassion and confidentiality.
