

TEMPLE BETHEL

A black and white photograph showing a large crowd of people gathered in front of a grand, classical building with prominent columns. In the foreground, several vintage cars from the early 20th century are parked or moving along the street. People are seen walking on the sidewalk and crossing the street. The scene appears to be a significant public event or a busy day in a city center.

Temple Beth El celebrates 165 years. Honoring our luminous past as we build an even brighter future.

The Origins of Christianity: AN INTRODUCTION

Join us after services for a special learning opportunity with Jana Von Gott and Rabbi Daniel Syme.

Saturday, April 25 and May 2
12:30 pm at Temple Beth El

Jana Von Gott has been studying Scripture, Hebrew and Christianity for almost 25 years, comparing them doctrinally and historically.
She graduated the University of Michigan with degrees in both English and Political Science, and a minor in Economics. She has seven children and one grandchild.

Stop By and Say Hello!

As we proudly celebrate our congregation's rich 165-year history, and emphasize our commitment to the Temple's bright future, it is a pleasure to announce these two major additions to our staff.

Kim Raznik, Executive Director

Kim joined our team in late February after working as the Director of Operations for the JCC of Metro Detroit. She brings a wealth of experience and expertise, including a proven track record of managing such diverse fields as safety and security, facility logistics, arts and culture, staffing, and tenant relations. Prior to her stint at our local JCC, she spent more than 20 years as a senior manager and producer for NBC News. During that time, she was responsible for news gathering, field operations, communications, crisis management, budget, personnel oversight, and strategic planning.

Kim grew up in Florida and earned her degree in Communications from the University of Florida. She lives in Bloomfield Hills with her husband, Joe, and their two young daughters, Chloe and Hannah. She is a talented executive with experience, Jewish connections, and an eye to the future – we are extremely excited to welcome her into the Temple family.

Debbie Morosohk, Director of Education

Debbie has been involved in Jewish education since she started teaching religious school as a college student. She earned a Master's Degree in Jewish Education from Hebrew Union College in New York, and is certified as a Reform Jewish Educator (RJE). Previously, she has run numerous educational programs, including 11 years at Temple Israel in St. Louis and the last two years at Central Synagogue in New York. Debbie will be starting at Temple on March 1.

Debbie grew up in suburban Boston and was drawn to the Reform movement as a teen. She was active in NFTY, and vividly remembers how her youth group involvement and traveling to Israel fostered a lifelong love of Jewish learning and living. She's now channeled that love into a passion for creating positive, formative Jewish experiences for others. As our Director of Education, Debbie will have the opportunity to bring Jewish tradition to life for all of our members – through the Religious School, in her supervision of our ECC, and working directly with adults and the broader community. She is living in Beverly Hills, and is the proud mother of two college-aged daughters, Ellie and Shira.

Mitzvah Meals

We meet the needs of the less fortunate in our community.

THIS MONTH'S PICK UP DATE IS TUESDAY, MARCH 24

What better way to show your support to those in need, than with a contribution to Mitzvah Meals? Your gift to Mitzvah Meals will ensure that those in need in our Jewish community will not go hungry. To date, thanks to your contributions and our partnership with Jim Hiller of Hiller's Markets, we have provided over 110,000 meals!

This month, we would like to issue a most special thank you to the Torah Study class for their generous contribution of their Tzedakah money to the Mitzvah Meal program.

As always, our thanks to our Mitzvah Meals volunteers. Our November crew, headed by chair, Deloris Weinstein, included Irv Barron, Cathy Deutchman, Jim Deutchman, Ann Flood, Adele Goldstein, Roy Goodman, Helen Klau, Estelle Kleiman, Dolly Lax, Irv Lorber, Karen Lowen, Rita Packard, Carol Schock and Florence Schuman.

Our thanks as well to our "volunteer caterers" who fed the volunteer crew - Adele Goldstein, Karen Lowen, Rita Packard and Deenie Zonder. A special thank you to Matt Hammond and Damon Kaigler of our Maintenance Staff for assisting with Mitzvah Meals this month and to Aaron Lowen from Cutting Edge Cuisine, for the use of their truck. Our thanks as well to the TBE staff members who volunteer monthly and Hiller's Markets for their ongoing generosity.

Honor or remember family and friends and help sustain the work of Mitzvah Meals with your $36 donation to the program. Make your checks payable and mail to Temple Beth El, 7400 Telegraph Road, Bloomfield Hills, MI 48301, attn. Mitzvah Meals.

Preserving History and Providing Resources

Donations to the Archives' Collection

by Jan Durecki, Archivist

Miriam Kushner and Izzy Malin

Sukkah in the Sanctuary

Eunice (Euni) Rose donated a copy of T'filot Beth El written by Jason Tickton in 1952. Euni's husband Norman Rose, originally from Rochester New York, was the cantor as Temple Emanuel from 1972 to 2007. Euni, a native of Cleveland, Ohio, directed the children's choir during her husband's tenure. Norman and Euni were close personal friends of Jason and Mamie Tickton. Euni remarked that she also knew Aid Kushner – one of the founding organizers of the Archives. Norman was the director of Community Adult Study classes held at Beth El in the mid-1980s. Euni is a social activist in Southfield. She referred to herself as a "Repairer of the World." She has served on the Southfield Public Library Board for the last 20 years and is part of the Martin Luther King task force. In 2014, she received the Viola Liuzzo Courage Award. On three different occasions either Euni or Norman sang the National Anthem for the annual MLK program. Euni relayed a story about her husband's WWII service as a radio operator/gunner in the 15th Army Air Corps. On many occasions when his aircraft returned to its home base in Italy, Norman would look out the window and see Tuskegee Airmen escorting the plane back to safety. Euni has committed to giving the Jewish War Veterans of Michigan Archives copies of Norman's service-related materials.

“How do people get along when they have been taught they can’t? Who do ancient artifacts belong to – the person who unearths them or the people who valued them in the past?” A 2013 National Jewish Book Award finalist, the story explores this question in the relationships between an ex-pat who becomes the assistant to a famous rabbi, a newly religious young American woman, and a Muslim who is a janitor on the Temple Mount. The facilitator will be Rabbi Mark Miller.

Bagels & Books will meet in the Library at 10 am; Bites & Books will meet in the Alpert Room at 7 pm. The series cost is $30 ($25 for Friends of the Library & Sisterhood members.) There is a $10/session drop-in fee.

AUTHOR APPEARANCE

SUNDAY, MAY 3 at 9:30 AM

Mark your calendars to enjoy the Brotherhood breakfast and to stay and hear nationally acclaimed author, Sara Davidson, speak about her award-winning book, The December Project: An Extraordinary Rabbi and a Skeptical Seeker Confront Life's Greatest Mystery.

“In 2009, New York Times bestselling author Sara Davidson was surprised by a call from Rabbi Zalman Schachter-Shalomi, founder of the Jewish Renewal movement, asking her to engage with him in what he called “The December Project.” At eighty-five, Reb Zalman wanted to teach people how to navigate the December of life and to help them “not freak out about dying.”

Davidson jumped at the chance. She feared that death would be a complete annihilation, while Reb Zalman felt certain that “something continues.” For two years, they met every Friday to discuss this and how getting “up close with mortality” quickens our ability to relish every day.

Woven through their talks are sketches from Reb Zalman’s life: escaping the Nazis; becoming an orthodox rabbi in the U.S.; landing in San Francisco during the sexual revolution; taking L.S.D. with Timothy Leary; befriending other faith leaders, including Thomas Merton and the Dalai Lama.

During their time together, Davidson was nearly killed by a suicide bomb and Reb Zalman faced a steep decline in health. They created strategies to deal with pain and memory loss and found tools to cultivate fearlessness and joy—at any age. Davidson includes twelve exercises so readers can experience what she did, a sea change in facing what we all must face: mortality.”

The Brotherhood breakfast is $3. There is no charge to attend the author talk and the book will be available for purchase and signing.

The Legacy of Vatican II

50 Years of Interfaith Relations

Monday, April 27 1:00 - 3:00 pm

The 73rd Annual Rabbi B. Benedict & Ada S. Glazer Institute on Judaism will continue to fulfill Rabbi Glazer's quest to build goodwill among all people. This year, we celebrate the 50th Anniversary of Vatican II and the Nostra Aetate document that revolutionized relationships between the Catholic Church and many faith communities. At the same time, we will focus on the shared concerns, hopes, and dreams that will allow us to build stronger relationships and a more cohesive future.
