Our Spirit is Growing

A Continual Process of Change

One of the common misunderstandings about Reform Judaism begins with our name. It is "Reform" Judaism, not "Reformed" Judaism. Although many people inadvertently use that term, the difference is much more significant than a few letters. "Reformed" would imply that Judaism underwent a major adjustment at some point in its history, and what we now experience is a newer (but static) version. "Reform," on the other hand, describes a continual process of change that has defined Judaism for thousands of years. Reform is a verb, and Judaism has never stayed the same for very long, always adapting to the real needs and pragmatic desires of people living at different times and places.

From the day I set foot in TBE, I have been working hard to help our congregation be a place that embraces experimentation, creativity, reflection, and growth. We are open to fresh ideas, new initiatives, and bold attempts to make our Temple more welcoming, more provocative, more holy. I hope to see you and your family at Temple soon ...

Rabbi Mark Miller
mmiller@tbeonline.org

The Gold Standard

Over the last 24 months, we have seen much change at TBE - change in clergy, change in staff, and change in the way we address and respond to the ever changing climate of hate crimes and hate speech in the world. As the Executive Director of this amazing Temple, I am challenged daily by how to successfully find the balance to achieve a warm welcoming congregation, while providing a secure environment in which all feel safe, physically and emotionally. As you may know, in 2015, we secured a 75-thousand dollar Homeland Security grant that we used to increase access control and video surveillance. In 2016, we secured a second 75-thousand dollar Homeland Security grant that allows us to continue improving our security infrastructure with access control for the preschool wing and cement bollards at the entrances. We also have an amazing team of security professionals, Morris Collins, Ken Jackson, and Donzelle Graham, who keep watch from open to close, seven days a week.

In the Greater Metro Detroit Community, TBE is considered the Gold standard for Houses of Worship with regard to security preparedness and training. In March, we hosted an FBI community-wide seminar: "Protecting Houses of Worship", which was a great opportunity to understand the uptick in anti-Semitic activity in our community.

At TBE, we continue to hold monthly drills for staff and students on sheltering in place, severe weather awareness, building evacuations, and lockdown drills. We provide CPR and AED certification and refresher classes for our entire staff.

If you would like more information or have any questions about our emergency preparedness, please feel free to contact me directly, and remember, "if you see something, say something".

YOUR TEMPLE working FOR YOU

Temple Beth El has 166 years of history, nearly 1,100 member families, and a calendar packed with opportunities to connect, learn, celebrate, and volunteer. But just as important, our Temple is here to provide resources, guidance, rituals, and spiritual counseling for a range of important moments throughout your lifetime. Each month, this column will introduce you to another aspect of what Temple has to offer, with specifics about how to take advantage of your membership.

One of the difficulties many of us face at various times is a hospital stay. Whether you or a loved one is in the hospital for surgery, illness, or another reason, we are here to offer comfort, spiritual guidance, and practical support. Our TBE clergy visits hospitals throughout the metro area regularly, and are ready with a prayer, a song, or gentle conversation. They are also available to spend time with family members who want to talk or to help find resources for whatever situation you find yourself in.

Our Temple is dedicated to walking with you through all phases of life, and our caring clergy is available anytime. If you or a family member are in the hospital (or planning to be), please contact our Rabbis and Cantor via Laura Lucassian at llucassian@tbeonline.org or 248.851.1100.

The Women of TBE

Relax - Unwind - Engage

At April's first annual Women's Retreat, seventeen Temple Beth El women spent an enjoyable and relaxing Shabbat connecting with friends new and old. We sang, ate, drank wine, shared stories of our personal journeys, and discovered common ground between us all. Rabbi Megan Brudney warmly invites TBE women of all ages to join us next year from May 18-19 as we unwind, engage, and go deeper!

For more information, or to RSVP for our next retreat, contact Rabbi Brudney at mbrudney@tbeonline.org or 248.851.1100.

BREAK THE CHAIN

HUMAN TRAFFICKING IN MICHIGAN

The Women of Temple Beth El recently sponsored a screening of a documentary film addressing an issue going unnoticed in our backyards.

More than 100 people attended the community film screening of "BREAK THE CHAIN" at Beth El on Thursday, March 30. This feature-length documentary film addresses the often hidden-in-plain-sight issue of Human Trafficking within Michigan communities and the United States. The film chronicles two survivors of Human Trafficking – providing a detailed look at how trafficking goes unnoticed within our backyards. Accompanying the stories of these survivors are nearly 20 interviews with researchers, senators, non-profit organizations, legal service agencies, law enforcement officers and several artists actively working to raise awareness for this global issue.

Guests enjoyed a dessert reception and special Q&A session following the screening featuring local experts including Deborah Monroe, Survivor and Owner of Recovery Concepts; Wendy Reyes, Lieutenant at the Oakland County Sheriff Department; and Edee Franklin, Founder/President of Sanctum House.

"The statistics on human trafficking are overwhelming, with more than 21 million people around the world being trafficked, and we are all connected to it in some way," said Edee Franklin, Founder/President of Sanctum House. "We are so thankful to the Women of Temple Beth El for helping generate awareness about this problem and educate the community on how together we can help "break the chain" of human trafficking as well as to try to reach younger trafficking victims and help them see that there is hope for a successful future "out of the life."

Our Commitment to Israel

Nearly 40 people made up this year's TBE delegation to AIPAC's annual Policy Conference in Washington, D.C. The event's theme was "Many Voice, One Mission" and we had a chance to meet with world-class analysts, engage with Michigan's national politicians, and interact with more than 18,000 pro-Israel activists from around the country ... sharing the common goal of strengthening the relationship between Israel and the U.S. We also had the unique opportunity to hear from top leaders in both Israel's and America's government – including Senate and House leadership from both parties (Sen. McConnell, Sen. Schumer, Rep. Pelosi, and Rep. Ryan).

If you would like to join us next year, leave your name with Laura in the Rabbis' Study (llucassian@tbeonline.org), and we'll make sure you get all the details for March 4-6, 2018!

The Joys of Community at Temple Beth El

CONGRATULATIONS to Margot Gardner, nominated for Eight Over Eighty. This event honors eight extraordinary community individuals over the age of eighty who have practiced Tikkun Olam through their lives. Thank you Margot for dedicating your time, talent and life to our community! Mazel Tov!

Our very own Margi Epstein was among a small group of distinguished alumni from Wayne State University Law School in Detroit invited to be sworn in to practice law before the U.S. Supreme Court in Washington, D.C. Margi was sworn in in front of all of the Justices of the Supreme Court in open session. She is now an official member of that prestigious bar.

CONGRATULATIONS to Dr. Stanley H. Levy, recipient of the 2017 Lifetime Peacemaker Award from Wayne State University's Center for Peace and Conflict Studies. Each year they honor notable individuals and groups who have made a fundamental difference in promoting peaceful relations in the Detroit community or globally. An award ceremony and reception with Nobel Peace Laureate Jody Williams was held on April 2, 2017.

Happy Birthday, Flora Winton, Past President of TBE. 100 years is quite a milestone and something to be celebrated!

Beth El Family Seder!

Our Temple family has so much to be thankful for, and we hope you will join us for another incredible night next Passover!
