What an incredible High Holiday season we had here at Temple! Thank you to all who helped create this meaningful experience, from everyone who showed up and participated in any way, to anyone you saw on the bimah during services, to all of our Temple staff and volunteers who work so hard behind the scenes and all over the building to make it all run perfectly.

I'm excited to report that I've already heard from many congregants responding to my Rosh HaShanah message of taking the chance to get more involved in Temple—since all it takes is showing up in order for us to become known to each other. We are also still happily accepting volunteers to serve in our Audacious Hospitality workgroup headed up by board member Alicia Chandler. We want to be a place where the full acrostic of our membership feels honored and welcome! In particular we are seeking congregants who identify as people of color; LGBTQ; disabled; of Sephardic/Mizrachi descent; and those who belong to interfaith families. Please reach out anytime to connect further either in general or regarding either of these projects!

I hope many of you noticed, though, that in addition to those Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur moments we also unveiled a new project highlighting Elul, the Jewish month of planning and preparation leading up to the High Holidays. In our preliminary High Holiday mailing everyone received a special maze pen, intended to get you thinking about the twists and turns of the past year and when you had to stop and turn around and try something again in a different way. Next, as I hope anyone who follows us on Facebook knows, we posted a daily video for the entire month featuring congregants and other TBE luminaries sharing what they and their families (and pets!) were committing to doing to help bring more meaning to the month. (See sidebar for full list of our many participants—I'm so grateful to them for making this project come to life!)

My own commitment for the month of Elul was to use a labyrinth every day to foster contemplation and relaxation—and I'm proud to say that I kept my promise! I found the labyrinth to be so calming at a stressful time. I hope some of you took advantage of the labyrinths we brought in to try to offer a different kind of High Holiday experience alongside the ritual moments. And as I love to mention, our tabletop and small walkable labyrinths were on loan to us from Northbrook Presbyterian church just a mile away and it was so special to connect with them as I built this project.

Lastly, I was honored that the Detroit News came to photograph and write about our labyrinths as well as our Personal Reflections Room in an article highlighting creative High Holiday programming. I'm so proud to be part of a Temple that embraces innovation while still holding on to tradition.

Looking forward to a year of embracing the old while seeking the new,

RABBI MEGAN BRUDNEY

LEARNING LANGUAGES WITH LIBRARY BOOKS!

YIDDISH & HEBREW

Two new books have arrived to the Prentis Memorial Library that can help your children (and you!) learn more Yiddish and Hebrew! I recommend both of these books (for the appropriate ages) as a great way to pick up new vocabulary – even adult readers can learn a thing or two!

DIRECTOR OF CULTURAL RESOURCES
LAURA WILLIAMS
lwiliams@tbeonline.org

YIDDISH SAVES THE DAY

by Debbie Levy, Illustrated by Hector Borlasca
 Age Range: 4–7 years old

I don't know about you, but I have been wanting to learn more Yiddish. Which is probably why this book caught my eye for the library. Yiddish Saves the Day is a sweet tale of how Yiddish might not solve the problem, but it helps express the tough and wonderful things that happen. The book follows the unfortunate walk home from school, where the main character has had quite a shlep (difficult trip). But his mazel (luck) turns with a little help and encouragement from his family. The story is written in a rhyme that helps keep the flow even with any (potential) stumbling with new words. Plus! Each page includes a helpful box at the bottom with the Yiddish words, their phonetic spelling, and a translation - no Yiddish experience required!

This story is loaded with Yiddish vocabulary, every sentence weaves in another Yiddish word or two. Which, in this case, really works! Between the words you might recognize ("oy vey," "nosh," and "shmeer") and the ones that could sound unfamiliar, this tale finds the balance between learning and fun.

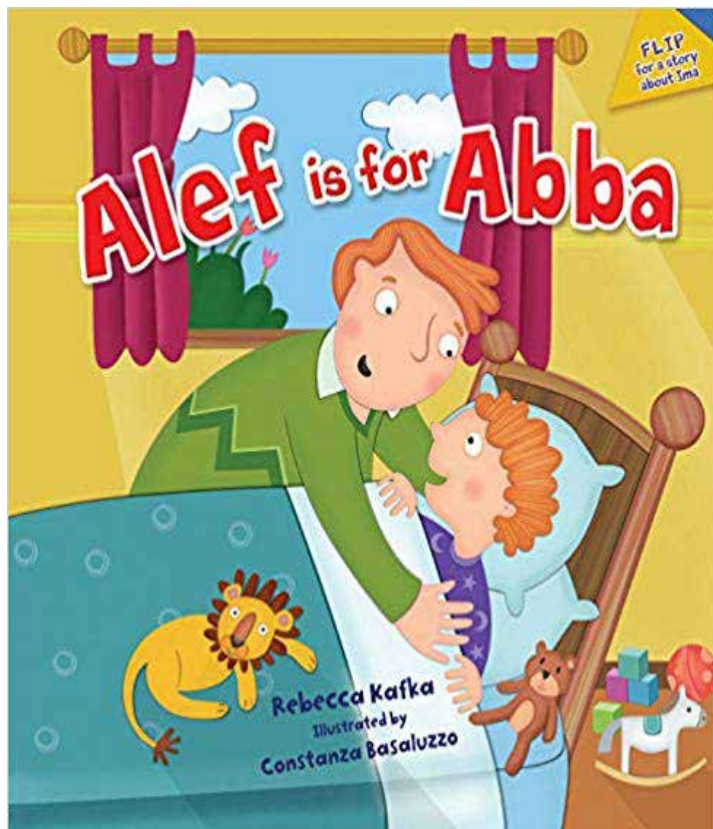

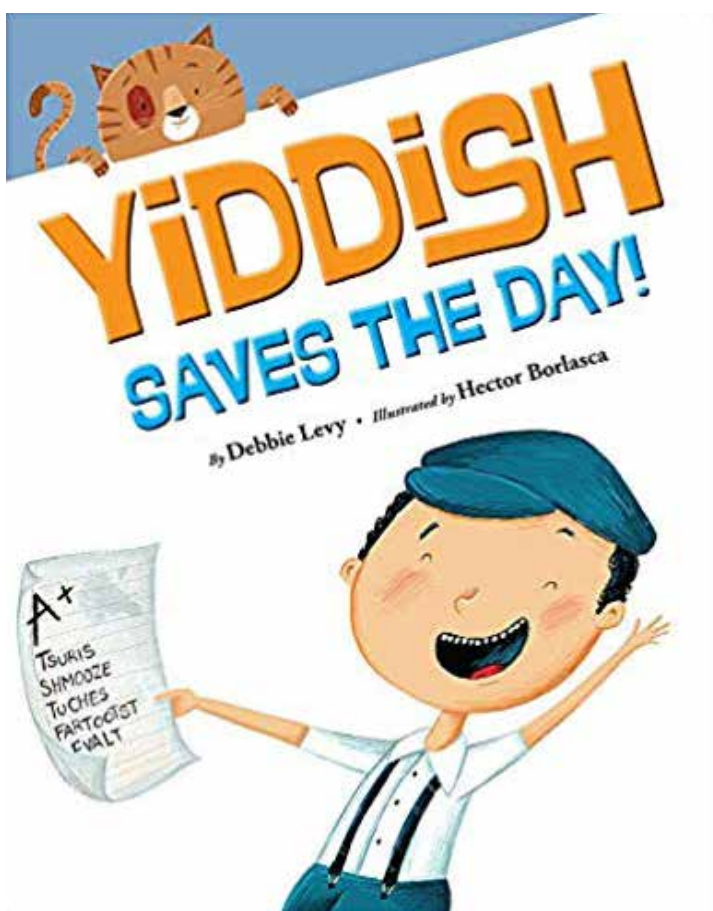

The illustration work for this book is also done very well! The colors light up the story and there are plenty of details to point out with young readers along the way. Plus, there is a super cute cat that joins the journey!

ALEF IS FOR ABBA AND ALEF IS FOR IMA

by Rebecca Kafka, Illustrated by Constanza Basaluzzo
 Age Range: 2–6 years old

This picture book takes the idea of a "flip" book to a new place. From one side of the book, you follow abba (dad in Hebrew) in his day with his family. Then if you flip the book and start again, you are joining ima (mom in Hebrew) on her day, and meet in the middle of the book where both stories connect with love and family together.

This book is told mostly through the pictures, with one new Hebrew word on each page. The word is written in Hebrew, English, and transliteration, with the illustration depicting the word. This is the perfect book for young students to get more familiar with everyday Hebrew language.

THE 2019 JEWISH HISTORY DETECTIVES LECTURE SERIES WAS A SUCCESS!

We had a great crowd of almost 90 attendees that came to hear from Robbie Terman, Director of the Leonard N. Simons Jewish Community Archives, speak about the fight for fair immigration policies by Detroit Jewish community leaders.

Listeners followed the ups and downs of the push to shut down discriminatory laws in the 1920s and 30s, and came to learn about a monumental law that was turned down due to the voices and actions of Jewish Detroiters. The final slide ended with a quote by Fredrich Hegel that read "The only thing we learn from history is that we learn nothing from history."

Robbie encouraged attendees to follow in the footsteps of those Jewish leaders that came before us to use your voice and take action against the things in our world today that are unjust. A big THANK YOU to Dr. Robert and Mrs. Joan Jampel for sponsoring this event.

AN AFTERNOON OF ARTS AND CULTURE AT THE DIA!

On September 5, 30 members of the Beth Elders, Sisterhood, and Brotherhood joined together for an afternoon at the Detroit Institute of Arts. As part of the DIA's free program for tri-county residents ages 55 and up, participants took a bus from TBE to the DIA, toured the museum's collections, and enjoyed a coffee and cookie reception. It was a wonderful afternoon supporting the arts and Detroit!

ROSH HASHANAH

PRESIDENT'S REMARKS

In addition to being President of Temple Beth El, I am also "CEO of the Modell household." My husband, JJ, and I have four children – Ruby, Lacey, Skylar and Nathan. It is important to me to start by thanking them. Taking on this leadership position has been a balancing act between family and our Temple family. My kids often have to wait patiently until I'm off the phone, or finished with a meeting, just to ask me a question. Or I'm not even home to make dinner or help with homework. It has definitely been a family endeavor, thank you for being so supportive and understanding. I love you!

People often ask me if I like being president, and it's a complicated answer. Before I started my position, I seriously wondered if I was qualified. Just the thought of leading a board meeting or speaking in front of the congregation put me in a cold sweat. Also, I didn't consider myself the "Presidential Type." So for me, it was a huge leap out of my comfort zone.

But now, 15 months into my term, I have surprisingly overcome my fears and accomplished more than I ever thought possible. I have created lifelong relationships and learned a tremendous amount. Overall, it has been – and continues to be – an incredibly enriching and wonderful journey.

Watching the kids grow up, it's striking how often their routines change. Just when they get comfortable in 3rd grade, the year is over and they have to adjust to 4th grade. Just when they are settled in middle school, it's time to move on to high school. And so on, and so on. All these changes help them grow and thrive, as they develop skills like flexibility, self-esteem and independence.

But as adults, we are less likely to push ourselves out of our comfort zone – that predictable, safe routine. It's human nature to do almost anything to stay in it! But in order to become all we are meant to be, we need to take risks.

To overcome anxiety about taking on my new responsibilities, I studied remedies such as exercise, meditation, and of course ... on-line shopping! Recently, I learned about a different technique: Humming! According to experts, humming can fight stress and bring a sense of calm.

It's easy. In a quiet place, shut your eyes, and just say "mmm" (like the sound you make after taking a bite of something delicious). Immediately, hormones trigger a relaxing response that clears the mind, lowers blood pressure, and boosts happiness! It is even said that a humming vibration mimics the sound of the universe.

Speaking of humming, Temple Beth El – like a well-run machine – is itself humming! We are on a growth trajectory with new memberships on the rise, top-of-the-line education, relevant programs, and inspiring services. We are witnessing a burst of energy throughout our building and beyond! There have been too many fantastic events to name them all specifically, but to list a few: our Food Truck Festival, Shabbat in Charlevoix, the Women's Retreat, Thursday Game Day, Family Camp, and the Adult Purim Event all have demonstrated significant growth in attendance.

We have the most amazing and dedicated clergy and staff who work hard to make TBE a magical place. They, along with lay leaders, are gearing up for the future – including launching a Capital Campaign – to address much-needed updates within our Temple. We have already had numerous congregants generously donate funds to enrich our Temple ... helping us become more accessible, tech savvy, and environmentally sustainable. The future of Temple Beth El is all of our responsibility.

I would like to invite each of you to take a step out of your own comfort zone. Break your routine and come get more involved here at Temple. Join a task force or a committee, make new friends, and give back to the community. I promise, the saying is true: "the more you give, the more you get." On your way out tonight, and throughout the High Holidays, we will have forms on the information table for anyone interested in enriching their lives. We will follow-up and help find a good place for your skills and interests.

So here we are celebrating Rosh HaShanah – and when we hear the traditional Shofar, you might recognize that sound is also a vibration. It initiates a similar response to humming, and maybe that is part of the reason why it resonates with us. It draws us back to our physical and spiritual roots, as we reflect on last year and welcome the new year.

I couldn't be more proud of our historic and modern Temple Beth El, now in its 169th year – strong and growing stronger. Wishing you all a healthy and happy New Year, Shanah Tovah!

 LIZ MODELLE President

THE HEART OF TBE

PHILANTHROPIC PRIORITY

Here's one example of such philanthropic generosity at TBE...

Miriam and Kal Goren joined Temple as a young couple in 1976. They became active in the Married Group, ultimately becoming Vice-Presidents. They made life-long friends through their involvement with the Married Group and became increasingly active at Temple in general.

When Miriam passed away in November 2018, Kal broke a “long-standing family tradition of being quiet givers.” He decided he wanted to honor her memory with a plaque in Temple’s Memorial Room. Members of Kal and Miriam’s extended family have physical limitations and planned to attend the plaque dedication ceremony. Kal figured that our Temple would surely have the modern equipment needed to move their family from the Maas Chapel level to the Main Sanctuary level without having to go around the outside of the building.

Much to his surprise, he quickly realized the elevator was not in the best condition. The current elevator was originally dedicated in 1997 through generous gifts from Mary and Larry Epstein - in honor of Larry’s grandmother Miriam Cantor - and fundraising efforts of our beloved Sisterhood. Standing on the shoulders of the Epsteins and Sisterhood, Kal saw an opportunity to further honor Miriam’s memory by donating a new elevator for our Temple building.

Thanks to Kal’s generous donation, the new elevator will be operational by the end of the year. Kal sees this gift as an investment in Temple’s future and a “living tribute” to Miriam. His passion combined with his generosity ensures Temple will be accessible for many years to come. We thank Kal Goren for honoring the loving memory of his wife, Miriam, in such a meaningful way. May his generosity be an inspiration to all of us.

If you are similarly interested in discussing how you can ensure Temple’s future, feel free to reach out to any Board Member or our Executive Director, Daniel Mesa.

2019 ANNUAL APPEAL

GIVE. SHARE. GROW.

Your participation is critical in helping us meet the needs of our thriving congregation.

After a wonderful High Holiday season here at Temple, this Bulletin will be filled each month with opportunities to build strong relationships, learn more about our tradition, celebrate Shabbat and holidays, volunteer to make a difference, and relish the benefits of a fun and caring community.

This is also a time for each of us to think about how we can support our Temple. You may have heard that membership dues cover less than one-third of our expenses – only through the additional generosity of TBE members can our staff and clergy continue to provide all the excellence and personal touches that make this our spiritual home.

Between the High Holidays and the end of the year, hundreds of Temple members will contribute to our Annual Appeal ... please join us in making a donation that will ensure that Beth El continues to be everything we want it to be. Just fill out the form on this page, or contact our Executive Director, Daniel Mesa, with any question about the Annual Appeal or about Temple. He can be reached at dmesa@tbeonline.org or 248.851.1100.

On behalf of our clergy, staff and board – we wish your entire family a sweet year ahead ... and thank you in advance for your generosity!

LIFTING OUR VOICES TOGETHER

Elana Arian

Weekend Sponsors: Anonymous; Mary and Larry Epstein; Carol and Steve Tarnowsky; Sara and Greg Tatchio

Elana Arian is one of the leading voices in contemporary Jewish music. A composer, multi-instrumentalist, prayer leader, and recording artist, Elana inspires communities across the country with her soulful songwriting and spirit. Elana's work has been included in many transcontinental music publications, including both the popular Ruach and Shabbat Anthology series, and her compositions are sung in synagogues, summer camps, and spiritual communities from London to Cape Town, from Australia to New Orleans, and everywhere in between. Elana has released three albums of original music and is thrilled to be working on her fourth. Elana has served on the faculty of both Shirei Chagiga in London and the Hebrew Union College - Jewish Institute of Religion in New York, working as a teaching artist in the Debbie Friedman School of Sacred Music. She has performed at Carnegie Hall, Lincoln Center, Tanglewood, and perhaps most memorably, five separate appearances at the (Obama) White House.

SUKKOT UNPLUGGED

We fulfilled the sukkot mitzvah of welcoming guests on October 17, as our friends from Christ Church Cranbrook shared our sukkah and our stage. Over 100 people came out for an evening of song, drinks, food and fun. Artists included: Claire Danaher, Samantha Jahr, Rabbi Mark Miller, Matt and Sarah Rappaport, and Steve Tarnowsky.

SUKKOT SHAKE PARTY

TBE families "Shook it up" at our Sukkot Shake Party. We gathered in the Sukkah to say blessings and shake the lulav and etrog, we enjoyed Lulav Shakes, and danced on the patio dance floor to the music of our favorite DJ, Daniel Mesa!

SIMCHAT TORAH AND CONSECRATION

The High Holidays came to a close as we celebrated Simchat Torah and Consecration. We welcomed our youngest Masa students who have just begun their Jewish education, with music, marching, and dancing!

TBE FAMILY CAMP

This year we had 15 families join us for TBE's Family weekend at Camp Tamarack! There were so many amazing things to do including enjoying the NEW garden in Pioneer Village. This year we got to decorate the Sukkah. The adults had a blast on the zip line! What a memorable weekend for our families!

SHABBAT IN THE SUKKAH

We sure love our new Israeli-Shuk inspired Sukkah. Many ECC families came to shake the lulav and etrog. Thank you to our clergy for joining us and inspiring us with songs and blessings. We had a nice time eating snacks and lunch in the Sukkah all week as well.
