A MESSAGE FROM CANTOR RACHEL

The Space Between

As I sat down to write this article, I started to think about what would be happening in October. Since we at TBE are currently zooming towards the High Holy Days, it seems impossible to imagine that they will be over by October, but they will. So, are there other big holidays coming up? Not until Thanksgiving, really. So, then, what will be going on at Temple that people might care about? Just our usual everyday activities – the stuff between the big holidays.

There is a Dave Matthews song called, "The Space Between," and it made me think. Don't we live most of the moments of our lives in the space between? Between birthdays and holidays, between life cycle events and trips. The walk down the street on a sunny day. The laughter of your child, as you play. The dancing in the kitchen as you do the dishes. (Or is that just in my family?)

It is said that when Moses received the Ten Commandments, they were written in black fire on white fire, and that both of these fires were meant to be read and interpreted. Thus, the white space surrounding the black letters in the Torah are just as important as the letters themselves, and just as essential. According to the Talmud, every letter in the Torah must have white space around it, or the Torah is unusable. Reading the Torah only for what it says has limited utility. It is when we interpret and discuss it that it truly comes to life. In the same way, if all that we offered at temple were the major holidays and life cycle events, we could not be a part of your daily lives and our efficacy would be limited.

Here are some examples (not an exhaustive list) of what is going on at temple in October, which you will find throughout the year:

- Monday evenings: Masa Teens (our newly renamed education program for 8th-12th grade.)
- Tuesday mornings: volunteers give of their time in our Braille Bindery.
- Tuesday evenings: TBE Choir rehearsals (do you love to sing? Email me and let me know you'd like to join us!)
- Wednesday afternoons: B'nai Mitzvah Club (for 5th and 6th graders to begin preparing to become a Bar or Bat Mitzvah, as well as for 7th graders to work with our B'nai Mitzvah Coordinator or the Clergy.)
- Wednesday evenings: Adult B'nai Mitzvah and other Adult Education opportunities.
- Thursday evenings: these vary, but in October they include the first installment of an Interfaith series that we are presenting with Christ Church Cranbrook and the Muslim Unity Center, to bring a deeper understanding between our faiths, a Board of Trustees meeting, and a Fused Glass candlestick project.
- Friday mornings: ECC Shabbat, led by a member of our clergy team or our Education Director. If you ever want to lift your spirits, stop by the Chapel between 10:30 and 11am any Friday morning.
- Friday evenings: 7pm Shabbat services. Did you enjoy being a part of our HDD services? We do this Every Week! We would love to see you become a "Shabbat regular."

- Saturday mornings: 10:30am Shabbat services. Fridays are too difficult? Come Saturday mornings!

In the mix, there are also meetings of our Executive Committee, our Board of Trustees, and many different committee and affiliate meetings. We have B'nai Mitzvah meetings, tutoring, and rehearsals. And all of this is in addition to 123 1-5 year olds coming into our building every weekday to be educated in our outstanding Early Childhood Center.

As you see, our space between is anything but empty. In the Torah, another way that space is used is to separate its sections. The sages said that the extra space was given by God to Moses to give him time to reflect and absorb the previous lesson. So, although I hope that your High Holy Days here at temple took you to new spiritual heights, and that you felt a sense of joy and purpose as they ended, I now entreat you to come to Beth El to experience the space between.

THE BETHELITE

"Be-The-Lite"

By some happy chance, the name "Bethelite" was given to our Religious School Paper when it made its first appearance four years ago. By some happy chance the name "Bethelite" is an exact expression of what our paper is trying to accomplish. Our paper seeks to "Be The Lite;" to be a school organ in which all matters of general interest shall become illuminated by school opinion, in which all school organizations shall radiate their accomplishments, of which Temple Beth El may be proud. This is the purpose of our paper, to "Be The Lite" of school opinions and school activities. It is our paper. With our combined efforts, it will "Be The Lite"

Greetings From Rabbi Franklin.

I welcome the BETHELITE as a new force among the many that are working for good in our School of Religion. This publication which will tend to popularize the activities of our beloved school will, I am sure, be heartily welcomed alike by our pupils and their parents. It will offer to the children an opportunity for self-expression and will be the medium of acquainting the parents with the activities of their boys and girls. Thus it will become a connecting link between the school and the home. As such, it should be a welcome guest in every household and should receive the moral and material support of all our people.

(Signed) LEO M. FRANKLIN.

Greetings From Miss Selmski.

The school is now running so smoothly that we can feel that there is time and energy for the editing of a school paper. There are not many Religious Schools in the whole country that have instituted such an interesting feature, and we can all feel proud of our energetic boys and girls who have made the BETHELITE possible. My hearty greetings to the editorial staff and all the reporters! I wish them the best of luck in their ambitious undertaking. If the BETHELITE will add to the fine spirit of devotion which now exists in our school, it will be doing a splendid work. Next month I would like to see every class represented in the columns of Class Notes. Now that you see how well this first number has turned out, you will want to be represented in every issue. Take your BETHELITE home to mother and father, show them what you are doing in the school, and arouse their interest in the finest of Religious Schools!

Council of the City of Justice Very Active.

Every Sunday morning at 9:15 in the Board Room on the fourth floor, Mayor Julius Pliskow calls the Council of the City of Justice to order. The above photograph was taken at a recent meeting, when important matters touching upon the editing of the BETHELITE were being discussed. Mayor Pliskow, who is now in his second term as Mayor of the School, has had plenty of experience in the governing of the school. He conducts the meetings in a most business-like manner.

The chief concern of the Council is to take care of the matter of tardiness, absence, and the distribution of the silver honor cups to the classes that deserve them. It is a source of pride to note that since the Council has taken the control of things, the tardiness has dropped almost to nothing. In the old building we used to have as many as 50 tardy on a Sunday morning, but with the watchful members of the Council at the door of the Chapel here in this new school, the number of late pupils has been steadily decreased. Nowadays if there are 10 late out of the hundreds who come, it is a lot.

It is an honor to be elected a Councilman, and a still bigger honor to be elected to an executive office. The members of the school should look forward to the chance that is theirs to be elected to these positions. It depends on the faithfulness of each boy and girl, whether he or she can be considered as a candidate. The record of every Councilman must be a good one before he can serve. When the citizens cast their votes, they should select those, who because of their records deserve such high recognition.

Greetings From Rabbi Berkowitz.

Boys and Girls:

We all can feel justly proud of the work of our Council in preparing the first number of the BETHELITE, the official organ of the School of Religion of Temple Beth El. When the Council met at the beginning of the year, Mayor Julius Pliskow suggested a school paper, but at that time we had so many problems before us that we had to postpone the idea of editing the BETHELITE. After most of our early problems were settled, the whole matter was taken up again, and this first number is the result of the earnest co-operation and help of the whole school.

The object and purpose of the BETHELITE is to stimulate the spirit of the school, and a love for our great Religious Home. When members of the school can make some concrete contribution to this publication, they can feel that they are an actual part of the institution. The editors want as many different boys and girls to contribute as possible. The more the merrier.

I often wonder when I hear the Assembly sing the School Song, if the boys and girls are thinking of the words they utter, "Beth El, Beth El, We Come to Thee in Love and Gratitude." These words ring out strong and clear, but just to sing them is not enough. I want our pupils to feel a warm sense of joy and thanksgiving when they come each Sunday morning to this magnificent school with all its advantages. I want them to love their dear old Religious School, and if the BETHELITE will help to enhance that love and devotion, then its mission will have been accomplished.

EXTRA. EXTRA. READ ALL ABOUT IT!

BETHELITE

Did you know that the Temple Beth El youth used to have their very own news source? The Bethelite was published by the Religious School students from the 1920s-1960s and originally added the slogan "The Official Organ of the School of Religion of Temple Beth El".

Topics covered everything from information on the confirmation class, thoughts from the Rabbi, poems, and award winners. The students appeared to have a lot of fun contributing. Ages of writers ranged from elementary to high school. The articles were very professional, some touched on serious topics like war and death while others were interesting insights and news detailing the projects done in their classrooms. Check out these few highlights from the many years of publication or stop in the archives to see more!

PRESIDENT'S REMARKS

I want to take a moment to express my gratitude and appreciation for Temple Beth El's Clergy, Staff, and Lay Leaders (which I refer to as "Team TBE.") I also want to extend a warm welcome to the latest Team TBE addition, Daniel Mesa, our New Executive Director. Everybody on Team TBE works diligently to put a modern twist on our historic Temple. We have so many exciting things happening here every day. Temple Beth El is thriving and I couldn't be more proud to be your 70th President!

This is such a busy time of year ... but I always wonder, why is that? Why, with all our modern conveniences that are supposed to save time, are we still so busy? With a click of a button you can order anything, and have it delivered right to your door. No need to go to the bookstore or even to the supermarket. You don't even have to waste time driving and parking: Just take an Uber! Yet even with all these timesavers we seem to have less and less of exactly that which we're trying so desperately to safeguard, our free time.

This season is especially hectic for my family. Recently my husband J.J. and I packed and moved two of our kids, Ruby and Lacey, up to the University of Michigan. And for our other two, Skylar and Nathan, we were busy buying school supplies and new clothes, and attending various Curriculum Nights, and Ice Cream Socials. Autumn also means covering lawn furniture, cleaning out flower beds and, of course, let's not forget that it's football season!

Like most families, ours is in a never-ending state of trying to "get things done!" It's as if we're on a constantly-turning hamster wheel. Running around and around, only stopping to sleep, and then back on in the morning, once again turning around and around. And yet today, with our hamster wheels in high speed, comes Rosh HaShanah. We are told to stop, and to reflect on the past and on what we hope the future brings. We're instructed to evaluate last year's accomplishments and to address the many areas needing improvement. We're told to forgive those who have wronged us and to show those we love how much they're appreciated.

If you were to evaluate last year on a scale from 1 - 10, with "10" being a tremendous year full of happy occasions, success, health and infinite love, and "1" being a dreadful year of failures, health issues, sadness and loss, how would you rate your year? Most of us would score somewhere in the middle. Maybe it was a good year, like a 7? Or maybe yours was a tough year and you'd rank it as a 3? As I look around though, it's hard for me to tell where each of you fall on your own personal spectrum. Everyone looks so well dressed, poised and content. But I know there are some 1's and 2's out there. Maybe the person sitting right next to you, or in front of you, is going through health issues or grieving the loss of a loved one. It's impossible to see another's problems from the exterior alone.

That's why a fundamental teaching of our Torah is to treat each other with loving kindness and compassion. Regardless of how you see a person, or how they look, you never really know what they're going through. I try to be kind to people and give them the benefit of the doubt. For instance, if someone is rude to me, instead of being rude back I assume they're having a rough day and try not to take it personally. I just smile and say "have a nice day." Because being kind is contagious, even small acts of kindness and compassion, like a friendly comment or a compliment, can have a powerful impact.

In addition to being Rosh HaShanah, today is also National Grandparents Day. Most people aren't aware this holiday even exists, but it does and has since 1973! (Here I'd like to give a shout out to my parents Susie and Michael Kent, and Lynn Modell and Ken Modell.) As Jews we have an obligation to honor our grandparents, and the High Holidays are a perfect opportunity to both spend more time with them, and to tell them how much they're appreciated. Both they, as well as other seniors in the community, should know that we value what a gift they are in our lives.

And speaking of elders, it was our great, great, great grandparents who founded Temple Beth El in 1850. When there were only a handful of Jews living in Detroit, we were the first Jewish congregation in Michigan. And look at us now: A thriving Temple with over 1,100 families! Our Early Childhood Center's enrollment is up over 50% and our Young Family Memberships are increasing.

And so, on this Rosh HaShanah, let's take a break from the "hamster wheel" effect of modern life to appreciate our family and friends. To be kind and compassionate toward others, and to cherish our grandparents and elders.

May you have a year of health, happiness and peace. In other words, I wish you all a perfect "10" of a new year.

Shanah Tovah!

JIM RICE

JIM RICE

TBE board member, Jim Rice, has served on the Lions Hearing Center of Michigan's (LHCM) board of directors for the past five years, which was established by his father-in-law in 2000, the late Dr. Robert H. Mathog; renown otolaryngologist, researcher and educator. The LHCM recently announced that it has merged with the Lions of Michigan Foundation (LMF), a statewide run charity.

LHCM is a non-profit that serves southeastern Michigan by helping the deaf and hard of hearing by providing affordable hearing aids and offering hearing screening services to thousands of children and adults each year to those in need. It also helps their families find resources and support.

The merger will strengthen both organizations, and together, help many more people throughout the state who suffer from hearing loss. The new combined affordable hearing aid programs will be named in honor of Dr. Mathog and will be called The Dr. Robert H. Mathog Lions Hearing Centers.

Through this combined effort, Jim says "The Lions of Michigan can make a real difference in improving the quality of life for the hearing impaired and to help realize its long-term goal of implementing a standardized hearing healthcare program for all of Michigan. I'm proud of this effort and grateful that the Lions of Michigan through this merger has helped preserve Dr. Mathog's important legacy as a scientific and medical advocate for those directly and indirectly affected by hearing loss."

TORAH STUDY AT TBE

Saturday mornings,
9:15-10:15 am in the Library

For more than 40 years, TBE has offered a weekly study opportunity – and this year, we are adding to the tradition! Beginning on October 6, a rotation of our Clergy and Educator will meet in the Library every Saturday morning at 9:15 am for an engaging, interactive, and enlightening discussion of the weekly Torah portion. No prior experience is necessary, and you are welcome to drop by any week or bring some friends. Enjoy bagels and coffee, and walk away with insight into the jewels of wisdom and practical advice to be found within our Torah.

Contact the Rabbis' Study for more information – we look forward to learning

Most weeks throughout the year, in addition to our TBE Torah Study, our lay-led Bible study will continue in the Board Room at 9:00 am on Saturdays – join Dr. Charles Greenberg for a more advanced analysis of some of the incredible books in our Bible that follow the Torah.

YOUR TEMPLE WORKING FOR YOU

Temple Beth El has 168 years of history, nearly 1,100 member families, and a calendar packed with opportunities to connect, learn, celebrate, and volunteer. But just as important, our Temple is here to provide resources, guidance, rituals, and spiritual counseling for a range of special moments throughout your lifetime. Each month, this page will help you explore the various aspects of what Temple has to offer, with specifics about how to take advantage of your membership. For example:

BRIS/BABY NAMING: Special ceremonies at Temple, your home, or elsewhere to bless a new child, give them a Hebrew name, and welcome them into the Covenant of the Jewish People.

ANNIVERSARIES: Beginning in 2018, we will honor those celebrating "quinquennial" (every 5 years) anniversaries with a special blessing on the bimah during a Friday night service. For those married 50 years or more, please let us know so we can prepare a special gift – you are an inspiration to us all!

BLESSING YOUR HOME: A mezuzah can make a house feel like a Jewish home, and our clergy are available to help you affix a mezuzah with a simple ceremony to bless your home.

SPIRITUAL COUNSELING: Life is filled with beauty, but it also contains difficulties. Judaism has a lot to offer, and our compassionate clergy are here to talk with you confidentially about any emotional, spiritual, or religious concerns you would like to discuss.

ELDER CARE: No matter how much we love our aging family members, it can be overwhelming to deal with the emotions that come with changes in their needs and abilities – Temple is here to help.

HOSPITAL VISITS: Whether you or a loved one are in the hospital for surgery, illness or another reason, we are here to offer comfort, spiritual guidance, and practical support. Our clergy visit hospitals throughout the metro area regularly, and are ready with a prayer, song, or gentle conversation.

SHIVA CORPS: After a funeral, it is customary to gather for Shiva to share stories, comfort one another, and join together for a brief service. In addition to our clergy, the TBE Shiva Corps is a group of volunteers who are ready to provide an opportunity to share memories and say Mourner's Kaddish surrounded by community.

UNVEILING: Near the end of the first year after the death of a loved one, we return to the cemetery for an "unveiling" ceremony to install and bless a permanent marker at the gravesite.

By Tova Mirvis, Facilitated by Rabbi Megan Brudney

Born and raised in a tight-knit Orthodox Jewish family, Tova Mirvis committed herself to observing the rules and rituals prescribed by this way of life. She married a man from within the fold and quickly began a family. But over the years, her doubts became stronger than her faith, and at age forty she felt could no longer breathe in what had become a suffocating existence. Tova decides to leave her husband and her faith. This will mean forging a new way of life, not just for herself but for her children, who are struggling with what the divorce and her new status as "not Orthodox" will mean for them. ## MASA (RELIGIOUS SCHOOL) STUDENTS TZEDAKAH PROJECTS

During the 2017-18 school year two of our classes went above and beyond in their tzedakah projects.

Our 1st Grade students were learning about the Mitzvah of Bikkur Cholim, Visiting the Sick, with their teacher Forest Levy Wolfe. They wanted to do something that would help people who are ill. As a class, they decided to target the tzedakah money they collected each week toward an iPad that could be given to children who are in the hospital. The kids were so motivated to make this happen that they collected several hundred dollars over the course of the school year. The money paid for an iPad along with accessories. This summer, Forest delivered the iPad to Beaumont Hospital in Farmington Hills where it will be enjoyed by children who need to have surgery.

Our 3rd Grade students were learning about the Mitzvah of Kibud Z'kaynim, Honoring the Elderly with their teacher, Cindy Schoenbart. They knew they were going to visit with some of the seniors at Meer Senior Apartments in the spring and they wanted to bring them something special. The staff at Meer let us know that they were opening a new dining room and needed a mezuzah. The students collected money for the purchase of a mezuzah and scroll and shopped for a mezuzah that they thought would be special for the residents of Meer. They brought the mezuzah with them and presented it to the residents when they went to visit and play bingo.

So proud of our kids!
