SEVEN DAYS OF CREATION

OUR INSPIRING TEMPLE

Jewish tradition teaches that we create a "sacred space" any place where people gather together and share words of Torah. And sacred space becomes a Sanctuary any time an Ark with a Torah scroll is present.

"Seven Days of Creation" –
by renowned Jewish artist
Lynn Rae Lowe

At TBE, we are blessed with all sorts of sacred spaces – our magnificent DeRoy Sanctuary, our warm and intimate Maas Chapel, the beautiful Helen Vera Prentis Lande Courtyard where we hold outdoor Shabbat, the Sanctuary Foyer where we hold numerous services each year. And this summer, there was also the Prentis Memorial Library, where we held services each Shabbat morning while the Chapel was being improved in order to welcome a new art installation.

I have to admit, it was incredibly powerful to sit with hundreds of Temple members on the evening of Selichot as we got a first glimpse of the "Seven Days of Creation" – stunning artwork created especially for our Chapel by renowned Jewish artist Lynn Rae Lowe. Although Lynn Rae lives in Arizona, this installation was more personal than much of her work ... since she grew up right here at Temple Beth El!

We utilize our Chapel all the time – for Shabbat and holidays, for speakers and programs, for our kids ... and from now on, when any of us enter, we will be greeted by a colorful, abstract reminder of the very foundation of our tradition. The first chapters in the Torah describes creation – not so that we will understand the science of our origins, but so that we might ponder the mystery of why.

Why are we here? What is our purpose? How do we create a happy life and a successful community? The explanations are not apparent or simple, but they are awaiting our response. And my deepest hope is that you will not only enjoy the beautiful addition to our Chapel, but that it might inspire you to seek more of the answers that we can find together at Temple.

THE HEART OF TBE

by JIM RICE

Temple Beth El Treasurer,
Executive Committee Member

As much as Temple Beth El is a community of prayer, it is also a place where fellow congregants socialize, learn, commit to social action, become inspired, are entertained and even gain counsel. A transplanted Bostonian, "my" Temple Beth El of Sudbury, MA, a replica model of which is proudly displayed in the TBE library, has a small (but growing) Jewish population, and growing up, Sudbury was always known as a "one-synagogue town." When we moved to Michigan five years ago, however, I quickly discovered that larger metropolitan areas often provide congregants with a variety of different synagogues from which to choose.

In our quest to join a synagogue, I also discovered that no one synagogue is likely to satisfy everyone's needs and that it is important to find the best possible match – one where we know that clergy, leadership and congregants share a level of pride and dedication we have since come to expect.

Since joining TBE, we quickly found that through the generosity of its membership, TBE supports incredible children's programming, adult education, special interest programming such as Israel advocacy, teen groups, Sisterhood, Brotherhood and, of course, inclusive and inspirational High Holiday programming and events.

TBE takes commitment and support seriously and is grateful for the generous financial support it receives through dues and donations. Without them, it would be difficult to imagine our own warm and welcoming community where all congregants have the opportunity to create meaningful, spiritual connections. We thank you for your support and wish you a sweet, happy and healthy New Year.

Roy trained to become a volunteer caregiver with ZHP in 1997 and also served on the organization's Board of Directors for six years. Roy joined the staff of ZHP in 2010. Son of congregants Bernard and Phyllis (d. 2016) Remer, he became a Bar Mitzvah at Temple Beth El in 1975.

TEMPLE BETH EL BROTHERHOOD SOFTBALL

The Brotherhood softball team reached the championship game this year, but did not win the division trophy. Our team won their first game against Shaarey Zedek 21-7, with a 14-run 6th inning to end the game. Our second game was against Temple Israel 3 with Lenny Beigler hitting a line drive double in the top of the 7th, knocking in two runs giving us a 17-16 win. Our team did us proud in the playoffs, winning two games and giving it their all until the end.

We want to thank all of the players for coming out and representing our Brotherhood this year.

JEWISH HISTORY DETECTIVES

SNEAK PEEK

"The idea that the alien as such is dangerous and must be watched and kept track of is nothing other than a childish bugaboo, and grown up men ought to be ashamed of it."

"THE ALIEN BUGABOO"

From sermon preached by Rabbi Leon Fram Saturday, June 13th.

The Alien Registration Law has inspired terror in the hearts of all the hundred-thousand aliens resident in the State of Michigan. The many aliens who are here legally are just as terrorized as the few who entered illegally, because they are not at all sure that they can prove the legality of their entrance.

The proponents of the law who say that only those aliens need fear the new law who are here illegally are making a misleading statement, and they ought in all fairness to withdraw it. They ought to know, and knowing, they ought to confess that there were no records kept of entries into this country before 1906, that on the Canadian border there have been no accurate records kept at all. Aliens, then, who entered legally, who have been here for twenty-five years, are in danger of being suddenly uprooted and banished by this law.

The fact that the writers of the Alien Registration Law took no account whatsoever of this circumstance betrays the panic and the cruelty which motivated them. Their fear of the alien is so overwhelming that they are willing to forget the long history of justice and fair-play for which their country is known among the nations, and to treat the ^{alien} laien as though he were some vile thing entitled to no human rights and to no ordinary decency. That men can approve of such a law, who in all other relations in life are known as liberal and broadminded, shows that they have become victims of a psychological complex. They have reverted to the infantile fear of the "bogeyman".

This year, the topic of the annual Jewish History Detectives Lecture Series is titled Defending the "Undesirables": Detroit Jews and the Fight for Immigrants.

During her research, speaker Robbie Terman visited a few archives, including TBE's Rabbi Leo M. Franklin Archives. Robbie's lecture will focus on how Detroit Jews fought the harsh Alien Registration Act of 1931 on multiple fronts: as lawyers, as members of the press, and, in Temple Beth El's case, as rabbis. In the 1930's, Temple Beth El was headed by Rabbi Leo M. Franklin, and Rabbi Leon Fram was the Director of Religious Education. They both spoke from the pulpit about how the fear of immigrants was against true American ideals. Without giving too much away, Rabbi Fram took the fight beyond the pulpit.

In his collection, there is a folder that contains sermons and letters that highlighted his efforts to stop the Michigan Alien Registration Act in its tracks. As a sneak peak, see the sermon Rabbi Fram gave from Temple Beth El's pulpit. I hope to see you all on Tuesday, October 22nd at 7:00 pm, when Robbie takes this sermon along with countless other documents and pieces together the story of the Jewish community in the fight for just immigration laws.

The Michigan Alien Registration
Act of 1931 gave immigrants

HIGH HOLIDAY ANGELS

Each year we count on the support of numerous "Angels" whose generosity allows us to offer a unique range of inspirational and spiritual High Holiday experiences amidst the grandeur of our sacred space.

We hope you will consider joining a long list of members whose support continues to impact so many lives. Your contribution of $250 or more is greatly appreciated – and will go a long way helping us to create a meaningful New Year. STORIES OF Survival and Inspiration YOM KIPPUR 2019

Our Yom Kippur observance at TBE will be elevated again this year by two Temple members telling the stories of their personal journeys. We hope you will stay at Temple after our Morning Service (Wednesday, October 9) for either an engaging text study with Rabbi Brudney in the Chapel or a serene meditation experience with Brandon Klein in the Prentis Memorial Library – both will start at approximately 12:45 pm.

Then, at 1:45 pm in the Maas Chapel, prepare to share the emotional experiences and vital life lessons that will leave all of us ready to achieve our best in the coming year.

LILLY EPSTEIN

STOTLAND was working near Ground Zero in New York when the 9/11 attack occurred. With no warning, she was suddenly in the middle of a national nightmare – forced to make difficult decisions, watching terrible suffering unfold, and fearful for her own safety. Her surreal walk through Lower Manhattan to safety left her shaken but grateful. Years later, the echo of that moment continues to inform her life.

ELLEN KAHN grew up in pre-war Germany as her family watched the rise of Hitler and the Nazis. Eventually, her mother made the agonizing decision to send her daughters away on the famous Kindertransport to Great Britain. Although we look back on this as a courageous and successful moment, Ellen will discuss how the decision was made, how difficult it was in the moment, and how it has affected her life since then.

MEDITATION WITH BRANDON KLEIN

AFTER MORNING SERVICES ON YOM KIPPUR IN THE PRENTIS MEMORIAL LIBRARY

For all those who have always wanted to try meditation: Join Meditation Coach Brandon Klein, of Wise Mind Gentle Soul as he leads a forty-five minute session comprised of contemplative journaling, guided meditation, and group discussion. The session is designed to enhance your Yom Kippur experience by bringing your awareness to your entire being – body, mind and soul. The meditation will take place immediately following morning services in the Personal Reflections Room in the Library.

Bring your own cushion or use ours, we also have plenty of couches or chairs available if you prefer!

PERSONAL REFLECTION ROOM

Add a different type of reflection into your High Holiday experience.

We've transformed the Prentis Memorial Library into a calming meditation room for Rosh HaShanah, Yom Kippur, and the ten days in between.

Stop by to engage in introspection facilitated by dim lights, essential oils, meditation cushions, adult coloring pages, and more.

THIS YEAR WE HAVE EXPANDED OUR OFFERINGS TO INCLUDE SPACE OUTSIDE OF OUR SANCTUARY!

PARTICIPATE IN TBE'S "CAN-DEMONIUM"

Temple Beth El will again join area congregations in answering the needs of the hungry in our community by participating in Yad Ezra's annual Yom Kippur Food Drive. You can take part with the gift of canned goods and/or a cash donation. Yad Ezra food bags and donation envelopes will be distributed on Rosh HaShanah. Fill your food bags with non-perishable, preferably kosher, items. Suggested items include canned fruits and vegetables, coffee, oatmeal, peanut butter, rice, sugar, tea bags, tuna and pasta. Bring your bags to Temple on Yom Kippur morning and drop them off at our "Can-demonium" vans. Cash donations may be mailed to Yad Ezra in the envelopes provided or brought to Temple on Yom Kippur morning and deposited in the specially-marked Yad Ezra containers. Your donations will be deeply appreciated by those in need in our Jewish community. For more information contact Danielle at dgordon@tbeonline.org or 248.851.1100.

NEW THIS YEAR: OUR TEMPORARY OUTDOOR LABYRINTH!

Expanding our offerings to outside of our sanctuary space!

As we prepare for the high holy days, we know that people connect to God, Judaism, and the season in many different ways. Last year we added our personal reflections room as a space to promote spirituality. This year, to add yet another dimension, we are excited to bring in an 18 foot outdoor labyrinth that will be set up on the patio, adjacent to the sanctuary, from Rosh HaShanah through Yom Kippur.

In my own labyrinth research, I was delighted to learn that our near neighbors at Northbrook Presbyterian Church (located at 14 Mile and Lahser) have their own labyrinth and a wealth of knowledge and resources on this topic! I spent some wonderful time with Interim Pastor Anne Schaefer, Pastor Jacqueline Spycher, and trained labyrinth expert Sherrill Heinrichs, their Coordinator of Congregational Care, at the church a few weeks ago. Here are some of the most common FAQ about labyrinths, based on Sherrill's expertise and the materials she provided me!

What is a labyrinth? Isn't it just a maze?

Unlike a maze that confuses and challenges with tricks, decisions, and dead ends, the labyrinth is unicursal: it has just one path that leads into the center and back out once again. There are no wrong turns.

What is it made out of?

The labyrinth we are bringing in is a vinyl sheet with the path printed onto it. It's a totally flat surface. Labyrinths can be made out of pretty much anything and some use 3D objects like rocks or low hedges to form the path.

What is a labyrinth for?

Similar to other activities that calm and/or focus the mind (think meditation, coloring, journaling, etc.), the labyrinth provides a framework for your mind to go wherever it needs to go while moving your body as well. It's a tool that takes you out of your typical day to day mode and allows you time and space to work through a problem, focus on a prayer, or just let your mind wander. Walking a labyrinth can clear the mind, reduce anxiety, support healing, help in releasing grief, deepen self-knowledge, bring comfort and direction, and even lower blood pressure. At its best, the labyrinth is a place of transformation.

The 10' labyrinth and the tabletop labyrinths have been generously loaned to us by Northbrook Presbyterian Church. The 18' temporary labyrinth is in the courtyard from Rosh HaShanah – Yom Kippur.

What if my mobility is limited?

Our friends at Northbrook also loaned us several tabletop labyrinths—instead of walking, you trace the path with your finger. The tabletop labyrinths are available in the Library from now through Yom Kippur.

Aren't labyrinths Christian in origin?

While many churches utilize labyrinths to facilitate prayer and spirituality, the origin of the labyrinth is actually in Greek mythology—which long predates Christianity. (Note that in that context it did refer to a nearly impossible to escape maze, but the meaning has changed over time!)

I'm not good at this kind of stuff—what if I do it wrong?

There is no "right" or "wrong" way to walk the labyrinth. When you come in to try it, we will have some suggested guidelines posted to help you make the most of your experience.

Where can I learn more?

Northbrook has loaned us several books about labyrinths that are on display and available for reference use only in our Library. Feel free to bring further questions to me!

BITES AND BOOKS Witness: Lessons from Elie Wiesel's Classroom

By Ariel Burger
TUESDAY,
OCTOBER 29
10 AM / 6 PM

Facilitated by Rabbi Mark Miller.

Elie Wiesel was a towering presence on the world stage—a Nobel laureate, activist, adviser to world leaders and the author of more than forty books. When asked, Wiesel always said, “I am a teacher first.” He taught at Boston University for nearly four decades. With this book, Ariel Burger—devoted protégé, apprentice, and friend—takes us into the space of Wiesel’s classroom. Bringing together never-before-recounted moments between Wiesel and his students, Witness serves as a moral education in and of itself—a primer on educating against indifference, on the urgency of memory and individual responsibility, and on the role of literature, music, and art in making the world a more compassionate place.

On Saturday, September 21, hundreds of members and guests joined us as we revealed the "Seven Days of Creation" – artwork created especially for our Chapel by renowned Jewish artist Lynn Rae Lowe. Afterwards, we celebrated the beginning of the new Jewish year of 5780 with a Selichot ceremony.

Log onto www.tbeonline.org for more photos from this event.

OPENING DAY PICNIC

Following Masa Open House, our Family Picnic included fun for everyone. The afternoon included climbing and sliding on inflatables, pony rides, a petting zoo, face painting, music, and lunch. The weather cooperated, so everyone was able to relax and enjoy all the festivities with their TBE friends!

BACK TO SCHOOL IS A BLAST

The ECC is having an absolute blast as we begin our year together. We've met Tamar, who is here from Israel for the year and with us every week and sharing her love of Israel/Hebrew with us. #ShowUpForShabbat Gather. Remember. Act.

OCTOBER 25-26, 2019 AJC

Last year, following the tragedy at Pittsburgh's Tree of Life synagogue, we saw hundreds of congregations filled to the brim with members and friends from different faiths during #ShowUpForShabbat, an initiative spearheaded by AJC. As we approach the one-year commemoration, AJC is again calling on people across the country and beyond to come together to honor the 11 victims lost on 10-27-2018 and raise our voice for a world free of antisemitism, hate and bigotry. On Shabbat (Oct. 25-26), congregations throughout the country will be locations for #ShowUpForShabbat (2.0).
