

TEMPLE BETH EL CELEBRATING 165 YEARS

the Bulletin

SEPTEMBER 2015 ELUL 5775
VOL. 29 ISSUE 3

SHANA TOVAH U-M'TUKAH

Beauty derives from our ability to interact with the world around us. Our senses take pleasure in the gifts we have been given, and part of our religious journey is recognizing the Source of life and joy. Each year, the High Holy Days provide us with a unique opportunity to address those facets of our personality which keep us from fully appreciating the beauty in our lives.

Making The World A Better Place

JOURNEY FOR JUSTICE

On August 3, Rabbi Miller and Temple member Jim Marks ventured to Montgomery, Alabama in order to walk in "America's Journey for Justice." The 860-mile march from Selma to Washington, DC was organized by the NAACP, and our Reform Movement's rabbinic leadership from the CCAR was an early partner. As part of the Just Congregations National Core Team, Rabbi Miller and a few of his colleagues were instrumental in making sure that at least one rabbi would be present for every day of the march, and that a Torah would be part of the entire journey.

One of Rabbi Miller's driving questions for many years has been, how do we put our Jewish values into action? Our heritage offers us the serenity of Shabbat, rituals that provide comfort through difficult times, an ethical tradition that has come to define Western culture, and a deep sense that we are God's partners in the ongoing mission of making the world a better place. We have so much to learn, so much to enjoy, so much to be proud of ... but none of it will better our lives unless we take advantage of it.

Walking across the hot pavement of the Selma Highway, Jim Marks wrestled with the concern that his presence wouldn't make a difference. There are such large issues to address, why would our participation matter?

Part of the answer that arose through conversations with fellow marchers, rabbis, and even NAACP President Cornell Brooks, was that the only way to build a movement is by building relationships and allowing those relationships to blossom. One person's experience turns into 10 conversations, which may grow into hundreds of social media interactions.

Our Jewish community may represent a small facet in a diverse country, and a big world. But we still strive to fulfill our ancient imperative to be "a light unto the nations." (Isaiah 42:6)

If you are interested in finding more opportunities to get involved with our Temple family, as we get involved in the larger community, please contact Rabbi Miller in the Rabbis' Study.

JEWISH CAMP MAKES FOR A GREAT SUMMER activities, friendships and communal life

by Rabbi Mark Miller

Summer camp is an institution, and kids go away for a few weeks or a few months to build character, develop lifelong friendships, gain independence and self-esteem, and have massive amounts of fun. At Jewish summer camps across the country, they get to do all that, while experiencing Judaism in a fun, meaningful, carefree way that leaves a lasting impression.

Our own Reform Movement offers 17 different camps around the country, each one providing incredible programs imbued with the same sense of Jewish learning and living that we strive to create here at Temple Beth El.

This past summer, I spent a week serving on faculty at the Goldman Union Camp Institute (GUCI). Located in Zionsville, Indiana (just outside Indianapolis), it is an easy drive to reach the magic of this fantastic summer camp. Activities run the gamut! Sports like basketball, baseball, soccer, tennis, ga-ga, and swimming. Arts like drama, guitar, ceramics, dance, video, and arts & crafts. Outdoor activities like an alpine climbing tower, canoeing, and hiking. And layered into every day are Jewish songs, beautiful outdoor services, Hebrew and Israeli culture, and fun/creative programs to learn about Jewish values and tradition.

There are lots of great summer camp options out there, and numerous Jewish camps around Michigan and the region. I strongly encourage families to send kids to camp, and we have limited scholarship funds to help. But over time, I hope that a growing group of Temple kids will take advantage of the superb, unique experience of Reform Jewish camping. Feel free to ask me or our Director of Education, Debbie Morosohk, about GUCI – and watch for information about a visit this fall from the Camp Director Jeremy Klotz.

If your child attended any camp last summer, please send us a photo (llucassian@tbeonline.org) with the camp name and a description of what they loved about camp – we'll put it up on the Temple website!

TBE at GUCI – includes Rabbi Miller, Mori Miller, Abraham Miller, Miranda Freedman, Sammy Freedman, Shira Morosohk, and Allie Fox (Temple member, cantorial student at HUC)

High Holy Days

SHANA TOVAH U-M'TUKAH

Rosh Hashanah is a time of grandeur. The Shofar echoes across the Sanctuary and through our souls, demanding attention. The ethereal tones encourage us to sit a little taller, open our eyes a little wider, and dig a little deeper. Introspection means being honest with ourselves – not only about our shortcomings, but about our vision for the person we want to be. Judaism teaches that the future is ours to create, but only when we develop a clear sense of how we want that future to look. What do we hope to add to our lives? What experiences do we want to have? What people do we need to spend more time with? What will we learn?

Yom Kippur, on the other hand, is a time of transition. Fasting is not a form of punishment, and it is not done as a way to atone for our mistakes. Instead, the demands of this day ask us to focus on our spiritual side – to feed our souls rather than our bodies, to spend a full day giving all our attention to moving past whatever has haunted us in the past year. We set the goal on Rosh Hashanah, and we move toward it on Yom Kippur. The afternoon includes a Yizkor service to remind us of all we have lost ... but we are not done until a final, brief service of closing (N'ilah). The experience ends when we open our broken hearts, allow ourselves to be filled with a spirit of hope, and commit ourselves to taking steps toward a fuller and more complete year.

We could all use a little more beauty in our lives, and Temple Beth El is a place where we strive to create moments of transcendent beauty. We look forward to seeing you on the High Holy Days, and wish for you a year ahead filled with all you hope for.

On behalf of Rachel Ann and our boys, I want to wish you and your family Shana Tovah u-m'tukah – may it be a sweet and happy New Year!

Rabbi Mark Miller

Take The Time To Help Feed The Hungry PARTICIPATE IN TEMPLE BETH EL'S "CAN-DEMONIUM"

Next month, Temple Beth El will again join area congregations in answering the needs of the hungry in our Jewish community by participating in Yad Ezra's annual Kol Nidre Food Drive. You can take part with the gift of canned goods and/or a cash donation. Yad Ezra food bags and donation envelopes will be distributed on Rosh Hashanah.

Please fill your food bags with non-perishable, preferably kosher, items. Suggested items include canned fruits and vegetables, coffee, oatmeal, peanut butter, rice, sugar, tea bags, tuna and pasta. Bring your bags to Temple Yom Kippur morning and drop them off at our "Can-demonium" vans. Cash donations may be mailed to Yad Ezra in the envelopes provided or brought to Temple Yom Kippur morning and deposited in the specially-marked Yad Ezra containers. However you choose to participate in this worthy project, your donations will be deeply appreciated by those in need in our Jewish community.

USHER CORPS VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

As the High Holy Days approach, the Usher Corps is seeking additional volunteers to greet and seat congregants and guests on holidays, at special Temple events, and weekly Shabbat serices.

Ushers are asked to make a monthly commitment.

Our Traditions

Preparing For The High Holy Days at Temple Beth El

As Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur approach, our tradition teaches that these High Holy Days are so important that one cannot simply show up and reap all the benefits they have to offer. It takes a serious process of introspection and reflection to enter the new year filled with hope, promise, and new understanding.

Here at Temple Beth El, we are dedicated to making the entire High Holy Day season as meaningful as possible for every Temple member. We hope you will take advantage of some or all of the following opportunities to prepare for a deeply spiritual experience.

BE A HIGH HOLY DAY ANGEL

Your contributions enable us to elevate and enhance the entire worship experience in our magnificent DeRoy Sanctuary. To be an Angel, please contact Laura in the Rabbis' Study, 248.851.1100, ext. 3142. Angels will be acknowledged in the Bulletin.

As the Sun Sets on Yom Kippur

When services end, join your Temple family on the front patio to symbolically break the fast with a glass of juice and slice of cake.

Sponsored by Denny Lande Brown in memory of her mother, Helen Vera Prentis Lande.

EXPLORING TESHUVAH WITH RABBI MILLER

Two-Part Series - Thursday Nights
SEPTEMBER 3 & 10
7:30 PM

Sit down with Rabbi Miller to learn how the ancient process of "Teshuvah" (repentance) is still relevant in our lives today. What does it mean to forgive or be forgiven? How do we move on from past hurts, or let go of our pride in order to build stronger relationships?

JOIN US FOR SELICHOT

SATURDAY,
SEPTEMBER 5

Selichot is a mini-holiday in its own right, on a Saturday evening near Rosh Hashanah. It is a time of great promise and true reflection, when Jews around the world go to the synagogue late into the evening in order to discuss the important themes of the High Holy Days, dig deeply into the intellectual and emotional events of the past year, and enjoy a service that leads directly into Rosh Hashanah.

7 PM Movie Screening - Nicky's Family

Join us for this uplifting film about Sir Nicholas Winton, a remarkable man who saved 669 Czech and Slovak children just prior to the beginning of WWII. The descendants of those he saved now number well in excess of 6,000. Sir Winton was knighted by Queen Elizabeth II and awarded the highest honor given by the Czech government. He provides an inspiration and model for people that one person can indeed change the world.

9 PM Enjoy a Dessert Reception

9:30 PM Selichot Service

Temple Beth El clergy, joined by Rabbi Norman Roman and Cantorial Soloist Tiffany Green of Temple Kol Ami, will talk and sing us through a beautiful Selichot service. The service will be followed by the Beth El tradition of receiving a personal and private blessing from our clergy, a blessing meant to help each of us gain the courage to handle moments when we especially need it. We are honored to welcome members of Temple Kol Ami to share in this meaningful service.

PLEASE LET THE RABBIS KNOW!

HIPAA laws prevent hospitals from releasing names of patients. Please contact Laura Lucassian in the Rabbis' Study to let the clergy know when you or a family member is in the hospital and would welcome a visit. This is the only way in which they can be made aware of hospitalizations, and be there for you when you need them. We would also like to know when you or your family members relocate to a senior facility or rehabilitation center. Please call Rabbis' Study so that we can stay in touch with all of our members.
