A MESSAGE FROM RABBI MEGAN BRUDNEY

As I looked at my summer calendar back in the spring, I knew the season was going to be a whirlwind.

As many of you know, Zach and I got married two months ago. Some of you even celebrated with us at our aufruf back in June. We want to thank everyone in our wonderful TBE community who offered their well wishes and support at this exciting time! (Also, to answer a very popular question, my name remains Megan Brudney!)

Aside from that obvious highlight, the best part of my summer has been getting to visit young TBE congregants at three different summer camps. I participated in a program at the regional Reform movement camp, the Goldman Union Camp Institute (GUCI), where rabbis take up residence at camp for up to two weeks. During that time the rabbis are fully immersed in camp life. Some of the many things we do there include:

- Guiding counselors in planning and implementing fun, engaging Jewish programming for campers
- Assisting campers in creating Jewish-themed services
- Providing b'nai mitzvah tutoring
- Sharing Shabbat sermons and stories
- And a special bonus: We get to enjoy grilled cheese, the greatest camp meal ever!

It was my second summer at GUCI, yet I felt right at home. I was truly honored to be offered the sermon at the first Shabbat morning service of second session.

In addition to my time at GUCI, I had the treat of visiting Camps Tamarack and Walden as well. It was a joy to greet our TBE kids and see them surrounded by friends and enjoying camp. Although these trips were considerably shorter than my stay at GUCI, I loved seeing the camps and absorbing the different cultures and opportunities they offer. I can't wait to see the kids back at Temple in the fall and to close the loop on stories they shared with me during camp visits! If in the process of looking for the right camp for your child/grandchild/etc. next year, please feel free to reach out for a second opinion.

With summer now in the rearview mirror, at TBE we've already spent many hours preparing for the upcoming High Holidays. For weeks I've been saying Psalm 27, which is traditionally recited every day during the month of Elul, leading up to the high holidays. One of my favorite verses of this Psalm says: "One thing I ask of Adonai, only that do I seek: to live in the house of Adonai all the days of my life, to gaze upon the beauty of Adonai, to frequent Adonai's temple" (Ps. 27:4). For me, both camp and Temple Beth El offer amazing opportunities for an encounter with God like the one described by the Psalmist.

We are delighted to welcome you too back to Temple, into our holy space—your holy space—when we begin our Rosh HaShanah prayers just a few short days from now. May it be a happy, healthy, and sweet New Year 5779 for you and your family.

L'shalom,

Rabbi MEGAN BRUDNEY

The visits were fun for everyone! Be in touch: Let us know which camps we should aim to visit next summer!

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

TEMPLE BETH EL WINDOWS

I

"I AM THE LORD THY GOD"

Remark--- This window should not merely illustrate the idea of "Revelation" but should serve, as it were, as an introduction to the entire series. No better theme therefore, could be selected than that of Moses receiving the Law at Sinai.

Subject: "Moses with the two tablets of Law." Moses should be shown in a mood of exaltation, the traditional rays of light encircling his head, and at the background the mountain smoking. The sky might be shown illuminated as tho by a sudden flash of lightning.

II

"THOU SHALT HAVE NO OTHER GODS
BESIDES ME"

Remark--- The prohibition here is against Idolatry. The picture is to stand not only as an explanation of the Command itself, but should stand out in striking contrast to the first picture. The first shows the exalted Moses "receiving" the Law; the second should show the "righteously indignant" Moses dashing to pieces the Law, of which because of their Idolatry with the Golden Calf they had proved themselves unworthy.

Subject: "Moses dashing the Law to pieces". (Exodus XXXII, 19) A strong contrast in the portrayal of Moses in the first and second of these pictures should be drawn. And yet essentially the face in both drawings should be the same.

III

"THOU SHALT NOT TAKE
THE NAME OF THE LORD
THY GOD IN VAIN"

Remark--- The "strange fire" which the sons of Aaron brought to the altar as narrated in Leviticus Chapter 10, was a profanation of God's name. For their sin they suffered death. "And there came forth fire from before the Lord and devoured them." (Levit. X,2)

Subject: "And Aaron held his peace", i.e. "stood in pious resignation, because tho his affliction was great, he recognized the justice of the punishment that had been visited upon his sons. Aaron, the Priest, wearing his mitre and breastplate (Description of High-priest's garments to be found in Levit. VIII, 7 ff.) should be shown standing with bowed head over the bodies of his sons.

IV

"REMEMBER THE SABBATH DAY TO KEEP IT HOLY"

Remark--- The Sabbath in Israel was always characteristically a day of rejoicing. It had nothing in common with the so-called Puritanical Sabbath. But it was not given over to ribald pleasures. It was a dignified approach to God through worship. Music has always played a prominent part in the worship of the Synagog. Hence the appropriateness of the treatment of the Fourth Commandment herewith suggested.

Subject: "Serve the Lord with gladness. Come into His presence with song." (Psalm 100, 2) This theme has been very beautifully pictured, but I can not recall the name of the artist. It pictures several maidens playing the lute. A reproduction of this picture is to be found hanging on the west wall of one of the parlors in the present Temple.

V

"HONOR THY FATHER AND THY MOTHER"

Subject: Joseph receives his father Jacob in Egypt. (Genesis 46, 29) The whole atmosphere for this picture will suggest itself by a study of the chapter cited.

IN TRUE HISTORICAL FASHION, ALL THE TEXT HERE IS WORD FOR WORD FROM RABBI LEO M. FRANKLIN'S LETTER, WRITTEN IN 1922.

ILLUSTRATIONS THOUGH

NOT TOO LATE NOW TO

AND MAIL ME SUITABLE

We have uncovered letters dating back to 1922 from TBE's Rabbi Leo M. Franklin (rabbi from 1899-1941) to famous architect and Beth El member, Albert Kahn. They were discussing design details for the new Temple on Woodward and Gladstone. In one of the letters, Rabbi Franklin describes in detail what each of the ten stained glass windows in the sanctuary should look like – with the grand idea that they would represent the 10 Commandments. This sets him up to research and present all the details to Albert Kahn. Below each of the window designs pictured here you will find the quotes from Rabbi Franklin describing his vision and see how they came to life! Check out this display in person when you are at Temple for High Holiday services, each window will have its own sign connecting to the history of how it came to be!

VI

"THOU SHALT NOT KILL"

Remark--- The object here should be to show the psychological effect of his crime upon the murderer, rather than the prohibited crime itself.

Subject: "The Mark of Cain" (Genesis IV, 9-15). My idea is to show Cain a fugitive, in mortal terror lest the consequences of his deed overtake him.

VII

"THOU SHALT NOT COMMIT ADULTERY"

Remark--- Obviously we have here the most difficult of our problems to deal with. What I suggest therefore, is that we picture a fine, pure woman, as symbolic of the ideal of Jewish womanhood.

Subject: Ruth. (NOTE)- This shall be the Ruth Marx Memorial window.

VIII

"THOU SHALT NOT STEAL"

Remark--- Of all the Prophets who denounced greed and dishonesty Amos was the foremost. He was a virile type of man, crude in exterior, uneducated in the ordinary sense of the term, but a man whose whole soul was aflame with zeal for Justice.

Subject: "Amos rebuking the injustice of the powerful men of his day. (Amos IV, 1ff)

IX

"THOU SHALT NOT BEAR FALSE WITNESS AGAINST THY NEIGHBOR"

Subject: The Judgment of Solomon" (I Kings, III, 16-28.) The story told in these verses is self-explanatory.

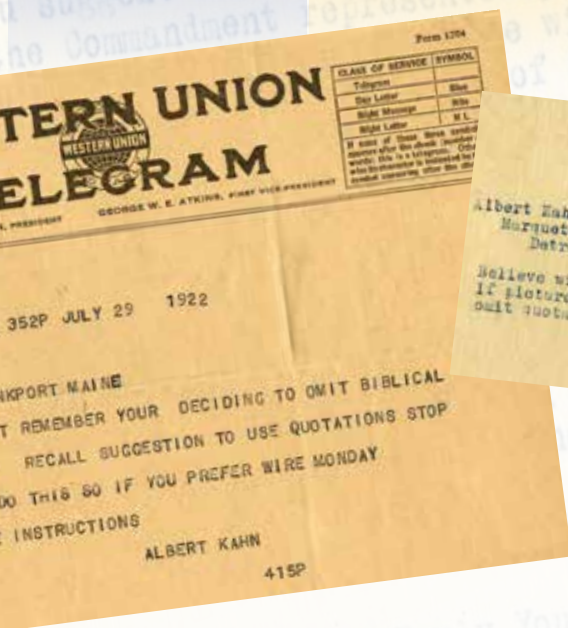

X

"THOU SHALT NOT COVET"

Obviously the result of this sin, rather than the sin itself must be portrayed. The most notable instance of Covetness in the Bible is that of David in his attitude to the wife of Uriah the Hittite. (Second Sam Chapter XI). This may be treated in one of two ways:

Subject: a) The Repentant David. This picture would base itself on Psalm 51, which according to tradition and the heading of the Psalm itself was written by David, as a Psalm of repentance after the enormity of his sin had been brought home to him.

b) The Prophet Nathan Denouncing David "Thou art the Man". (Second Samuel XII, 1-15). This is based upon the same incident, and would perhaps lend itself better to picturization than the "Repentant David" cited above.

WE WELCOME ...

DANIEL MESA

On behalf of the entire Board of Trustees, Temple President Liz Modell is excited to welcome Daniel Mesa as our new Executive Director! Daniel has been at Temple since September 1, and we hope that many of you will have a chance to meet him during the High Holidays. Over time, we are certain that you will find his personal warmth, professional experience, and dedication to the Jewish community to be a perfect fit for TBE. Below is a brief letter from Daniel, but we encourage you to call him at Temple or stop by to introduce yourself soon ...

Dear Temple Beth El Family,

It is a great privilege to join this wonderful congregation, as my family moves to Metro Detroit from Saint Louis, MO. Friends of mine have been asking, "Why Temple Beth El"? There are many reasons, of course, but a few that I've been sharing.

Such as the amazing sense of community that Temple Beth El exudes – it is uncanny, and helped me to feel connected to the people I met very quickly. I also enjoy history and knowing where we come from – Temple Beth El has a rich tradition, combined with a thirst to remain a vibrant and central part of the Jewish community. Lastly, family seems to be a word used often at TBE, which tells me that this Temple's growth is deeply rooted in strong relationships.

My own Jewish identity took root at a very young age, when I became very active in youth group and religious school. I began my Jewish professional career as a Youth Director, executing programs both locally and nationally. From there, I have held the positions of Assistant Education Director, Young Adult Programming and Programming Director, all of which helped me develop an understanding for many facets of congregational life. My journey led me to become the Area Director of Jewish Student Connection of Florida, and eventually to becoming an Executive Director at two other Temples.

During my career, I have learned many valuable lessons – none more important than building meaningful relationships with synagogue members, the professional team, and the surrounding community.

I have always believed that no job is too big or too small, and I would never ask anyone to do something I would not do myself. I look forward to the amazing opportunity that Temple Beth El has given me, and it will be a tremendous honor to serve as your new Executive Director. And I am eager to continue emphasizing the specific values and traditions that have made TBE such a great institution for the past 168 years.

My wife Melissa and our two children (Elan, 10, and Jordana, 8) are truly excited to become part of the Beth El family. Our family loves to dance, run, play games together, and enjoy all sorts of adventures ... we look forward to sharing some of those together, when we meet you soon.

All the best,
Daniel Mesa

“ I look forward to the amazing opportunity that Temple Beth El has given me, and it will be a tremendous honor to serve as your new Executive Director.

MATT BRODER

The Second Annual Billy Wiseman Home Run Derby Championship took place on Sunday, August 12th. Defending his title as Division 1 Champion was Matt Broder. He belted in four home runs, including the all-important last pitch "Money Ball" worth 2 home runs! Congratulations to this year's Home Run Derby Champions, and a very special "Thank You" to Billy Wiseman for initiating and organizing the event.

AVIVA & DEAN FRIEDMAN

In May, Temple members Dean and Aviva Friedman were honored for their central role in founding the Great Lakes Chamber Music Festival 25 years ago. They currently serve on the Festival's Advisory Board and generously sponsored the 2018 Opening Night celebration in early June.

AMANDA PLISNER

Amanda is the Deputy Attorney General and Statewide Human Trafficking Coordinator with the California Department of Justice. In late July she went to Kenya, and spoke to the African Bar Association's Annual Conference in Nairobi about her experience prosecuting human trafficking cases in the U.S.

100% of the entry fees of this popular fundraiser go to the Brotherhood of the winning Temple and for the second consecutive year all donations went to Temple Beth El's Brotherhood! Well Done!

We congratulate Aviva & Dean and thank them for their dedication to supporting community arts.

She is an alumni of University of Michigan undergrad and Southwestern Law School. The congregation is proud to share of her championing and dedication to human rights.

TEMPLE BETH

STORIES OF SURVIVAL

Last year, on Yom Kippur afternoon, we initiated a new event featuring the stories of two Temple members who are Holocaust survivors. This year, our Yom Kippur observance (Wednesday, September 19 at 1:45 pm in the Chapel) will include another opportunity to hear the stories and share the emotional lessons learned by two more Temple members – Elyse Foltyn, who will describe how the lessons she learned growing up as a 2nd generation Holocaust survivor impacted her when she recently lost one of her best friends; and Ali Weitz, who will share her journey as a very young mother who was suddenly diagnosed with cancer. Survival comes in many forms, and Yom Kippur is the perfect time to share these experiences, and to think about how each of us can deal with the difficult moments in our own lives.

HIGH HOLIDAY ANGELS

Each year we count on the support of numerous "Angels" whose generosity allows us to offer a unique range of inspirational and spiritual High Holiday experiences amidst the grandeur of our sacred space. We hope you will consider joining a long list of Temple members whose support continues to impact so many lives. Your contribution of $250 or more is greatly appreciated – and will go a long way helping us to create a meaningful New Year. For more information, contact Lindsey Fox-Wagner at lfoxwagner@tbeonline.org or 248.851.1100.

PARTICIPATE IN TBE'S
"CAN-DEMONIUM"

Temple Beth El will again join area congregations in answering the needs of the hungry in our community by participating in Yad Ezra's annual Kol Nidre Food Drive. You can take part with the gift of canned goods and/or a cash donation. Yad Ezra food bags and donation envelopes will be distributed on Rosh HaShanah. Fill your food bags with non-perishable, preferably kosher, items. Suggested items include canned fruits and vegetables, coffee, oatmeal, peanut butter, rice, sugar, tea bags, tuna and pasta. Bring your bags to Temple on Yom Kippur morning and drop them off at our "Can-demonium" vans. Cash donations may be mailed to Yad Ezra in the envelopes provided or brought to Temple on Yom Kippur morning and deposited in the specially-marked Yad Ezra containers. Your donations will be deeply appreciated by those in need in our Jewish community. For more information contact Danielle at dgordon@tbeonline.org or 248.851.1100.

EL HIGH HOLIDAYS 2018/5779

Masoret (Tradition) is Temple Beth El's Sunday morning Adult Education series. We hope that many in our community will appreciate this opportunity to come together monthly for Jewish learning and sharing.

SHABBAT IN CHARLEVOIX 2.0

FRIDAY, AUGUST 2

What an unforgettable night and a beautiful evening up north! Over 250 people came out to celebrate Shabbat with our second annual "Shabbat in Charlevoix" event. We thank all of you who came out to celebrate with us and enjoyed a fantastic Shabbat away from home. With another year of this event being a huge success, we hope you'll mark your calendars for Shabbat in Charlevoix 3.0 next summer, in August 2019.

SISTERHOOD WELCOMES NEW BOARD AT INSTALLATION

JULY 6

On July 6th the Sisterhood of Temple Beth El hosted a Pre-Neg for family and friends in support of their newly-elected Board of Directors. An installation service was led by Rabbi Brudney during Shabbat Services. Co-Presidents Elect Karen Lowen and Cindy Bolokofsky look forward to an exciting two years and they encourage all women in the congregation to join them at Sisterhood events including their keynote programs and meetings, as well as in friendship. Please join us in wishing all the Sisterhood representatives the best of luck in leading our TBE Sisterhood in a fruitful new year and new term!

VOLUNTEERING AT BCTC JULY 31

Temple Beth El Young Professionals gathered in our former congregation at Woodward and Gladstone to help the Bethel Community Transformation Center log in and shelf 11 boxes of donated books. Please contact Rabbi Brudney at mbrudney@tbeonline.org for more information about getting involved with this terrific project.

KID-ISH CLUB: NINJA TOT SHABBAT JULY 28

We enjoyed a great summer Tot Shabbat as we took on a ninja course created by the ECC's own Miss Alexis Noel!

KEEPERS OF THE EARTH

GREEN UPDATE

On July 20, we had our first ever Green Shabbat. I want to give a special thanks to program director Danielle Gordon, Green Shabbat chair Cindy Bolokofsky, Green Team member Jeff Hollander, and staff members Rachel Rudman and Susie Weiner, for helping to plan the event. Thanks to our other Green Team members as well, for their continued support: board members Jim Rice and Steve Tarnowsky, Sarah Rappaport, Michael Sklar, and Jim Marks.

This year, as part of the Seal of Sustainability through Hazon, our focus is on enhancing our recycling efforts, with better signage and bins; reducing waste, by using real dishes; and using products that are safe for the environment, when we do have to use disposables. To that end, I am asking each of you to do your part. If you agree that it is important for us to use real dishes at the oneg on Fridays and the kiddush on Saturdays, please consider donating the extra $50 per service that it costs to pay for a dish washer. Contact Danielle at dgordon@tbeonline.org to pick your date(s)! Also, we are starting to purchase Green Safe products, which are non-toxic and compostable, to help reduce our carbon footprint. These will break down in approximately three months! You may notice the new Green Safe coffee cups in the Slotkin foyer, to get us started, but we still need plates, cold cups, and cutlery for all of our small events, on a continuing basis, so a donation to help in the purchase of these would be much appreciated as well.

If you agree that it is important for us to use real dishes, instead of disposables, at the oneg on Fridays and the kiddush on Saturdays, please consider donating the extra $50 per service that it costs to pay for a dish washer. You can do this as a tribute, and it will be acknowledged in our announcements and our bulletin. Please email Danielle at dgordon@tbeonline.org to pick your date(s)!

Lastly, please recycle! With this year's Hazon mini-grant, we have purchased a large colorful 4-section bin for the front foyer. This has a spot for refundables (the grey section). Please bring your refundable cans and bottles to Temple, so that we can use the money toward our sustainability goals. Also, put your plastic water bottles in the blue section for plastic and your paper in the green section. In the future, I hope to get water stations and encourage the use of reusable water bottles, as well as buying compostable coffee pods. I know that it can be confusing to figure out, both here and at home, exactly what is recyclable and how best to reduce waste. But we need to do our best. From Midrash Kohelet Rabbah, "See to it that you do not spoil and destroy My world; for if you do, there will be no one else to repair it."

To help us in this process, we have enlisted the help of Natalie Jakub, Executive Director of the Detroit based non-profit, Green Living Science, which provides education about waste reduction and recycling. With her help, we will have better signage, more recycling education for our staff, and a better sense of how we can continue to improve our recycling and waste reduction efforts. We will also be certified and recognized as a Bee Green Business. Together we can make changes for a healthier and cleaner environment. As Jewish ecologist Ellen Bernstein said, "My goal is for all to recognize that the earth is filled with the presence of G-d. If we remember this... we would fulfill the biblical imperative to be shomrei adamah, keepers of the earth."

YOUR TEMPLE working FOR YOU

Temple Beth El has 168 years of history, nearly 1,100 member families, and a calendar packed with opportunities to connect, learn, celebrate, and volunteer. But just as important, our Temple is here to provide resources, guidance, rituals, and spiritual counseling for a range of special moments throughout your lifetime. Each month, this page will help you explore the various aspects of what Temple has to offer, with specifics about how to take advantage of your membership.

For example:

BRIS/BABY NAMING: Special ceremonies at Temple, your home, or elsewhere to bless a new child, give them a Hebrew name, and welcome them into the Covenant of the Jewish People.

ANNIVERSARIES: Beginning in 2018, we will honor those celebrating "quinquennial" (every 5 years) anniversaries with a special blessing on the bimah during a Friday night service. For those married 50 years or more, please let us know so we can prepare a special gift – you are an inspiration to us all!

BLESSING YOUR HOME: A mezuzah can make a house feel like a Jewish home, and our clergy are available to help you affix a mezuzah with a simple ceremony to bless your home.

SPIRITUAL COUNSELING: Life is filled with beauty, but it also contains difficulties. Judaism has a lot to offer, and our compassionate clergy are here to talk with you confidentially about any emotional, spiritual, or religious concerns you would like to discuss.

ELDER CARE: No matter how much we love our aging family members, it can be overwhelming to deal with the emotions that come with changes in their needs and abilities – Temple is here to help.

HOSPITAL VISITS: Whether you or a loved one are in the hospital for surgery, illness or another reason, we are here to offer comfort, spiritual guidance, and practical support. Our clergy visit hospitals throughout the metro area regularly, and are ready with a prayer, song, or gentle conversation.

SHIVA CORPS: After a funeral, it is customary to gather for Shiva to share stories, comfort one another, and join together for a brief service. In addition to our clergy, the TBE Shiva Corps is a group of volunteers who are ready to provide an opportunity to share memories and say Mourner's Kaddish surrounded by community.

UNVEILING: Near the end of the first year after the death of a loved one, we return to the cemetery for an "unveiling" ceremony to install and bless a permanent marker at the gravesite.

For more information, or to let us know what's going on in your life, contact Rachel Rudman at rudman@tbeonline.org or 248.851.1100.
