Temple Beth El

Offers Many Opportunities

rachel GREY ELLIS
Executive Director

Did you know bell bottoms are back in style? Neon too. Time to pull out your biker shorts for the summer because what is old is new again!

COMMUNITY NEWS: A Food Truck will be in our north parking lot every Wednesday from 4:30-7:00pm hosted by the neighborhood association adjacent to temple. Everyone is welcome to stop by and pick up dinner through October.

Even Temple Beth El, a 172 year old congregation, feels very new. I am often hearing members say “it feels good to be back,” and they “have not been in the building in a couple years.” People ask me who works at the Temple now, and what’s new?!

The answer is that while there are many familiar faces around TBE, there is an energy and excitement that feels refreshing and new as we enter into spring and summer. I invite you to come and participate in all that the temple has to offer – attend services and programs, book your simchas, and make your way back to Temple Beth El.

We are offering many opportunities this summer to re-engage and reconnect with our temple community, so mark your calendars and plan to join us at these not to miss events.

Summer Kickoff Global Voices, June 3. The smell of BBQ and the sight of family and friends gathering for lawn games and schmoozing followed by live musical entertainment is the perfect way to celebrate Shabbat. Nefesh Mountain is bringing its bluegrass sound to headline our Global Voices service, generously sponsored by Mary and Larry Epstein; the whole family will enjoy.

Food Truck Festival, July 16. The annual fundraising party of the year is returning and you can expect it to be better than ever! Come hungry and ready to enjoy the all-you-can-eat, all star lineup of food trucks and open bar, fantastic live music and an amazing silent auction with all your friends (members and non-members welcome). Thank you to our hard-working event chairs: Anne Weiner, Nancy Fortier, and Judy Roberts.

Shabbat in Charlevoix, August 19-20. Spending time up north this summer? Temple Beth El is coming to you for a Shabbat weekend filled with food, fun and ritual with our clergy and staff. Thank you to our wonderful host committee: Harriet Shapack, Sandy Hermanoff, Cathy Segel, Karen Lowen, and Rochelle Nelson.

Check out our calendar on the TBE website for the most up to date events throughout the year. Whether we have seen you recently or it has been a couple years, I invite you to participate in all Temple Beth El has to offer throughout the summer.

Look forward to seeing you around TBE soon!

Counting Out Time

We will be welcoming Nefesh Mountain to our Shabbat service.

cantor rachel GOTTlieb KALMOWITZ

As I write this, we are in the period between Passover and Shavuot, the 49 days where we “count the omer.” It is a particularly good time for introspection, for looking at where each of us is on our journey, and preparing ourselves spiritually for the giving of the Torah, which we commemorate on Shavuot. This year, Erev Shavuot is Saturday, June 4, and we will be celebrating with an event in the tent with Monger’s Provisions. However, the previous evening, June 3, will also feel like a culmination of sorts. We will be welcoming Nefesh Mountain to our Shabbat service. Many of you tuned in when the married leaders of the band, Doni Zasloff and Eric Lindberg, joined us virtually for our very first Global Voices Shabbat in November of 2020. They gave us a cohesive, moving, and rocking fusion of bluegrass, old time music, and Jewish tradition, and, just as Larry Epstein told me was his goal for this series, they “widened our understanding of Judaism and Jewish music.” Now, nineteen months later, they will be with us in person along with the three other members of their band, which will serve to amplify the impact that we previously experienced. My thanks to Larry and Mary Epstein for continuing to sponsor this important series.

It is also a time of year when our days are getting longer, and, for some of us, our kids are staying outside later, playing in the neighborhood. I am noticing a new independence in my daughter this Spring - popping down the street to go to a friend’s house without needing me to walk her, a desire to stay home alone for periods of time, and more need for privacy. She keeps saying to me, “Mom, I’m almost 11!” Counting down the days to this next age, as it brings more independence and, as she views it, more privileges.

For me, having attended a couple of large events at temple recently (the 2nd night seder and the archives fundraiser, Hidden in Plain Sight), I have been seeing many congregants whom I have not seen in person in two years. Some have not recognized me - which is not surprising, since my hair is a different color and I am wearing a mask, but it has been a pleasure to reconnect. I am aware, in myself and in others, how much we change when our meetings are years apart, instead of days, weeks, or months. Time continues to march on, and if we are lucky, we allow ourselves to grow and change and learn more about ourselves through the journey.

Our Metro Detroit Jewish community is going to Israel in 2023!

The time is now, and registration is officially open!

THE JEWISH SOUL HAS ALWAYS LONGED FOR CONNECTION TO THE LAND OF ISRAEL

rabbi mark MILLER

Our magnificent homeland is a place of beauty, of mystery, of adventure, and of spirit. Ancient wonders meet technological marvels, often in a single day. Israel is cobblestone streets and skyscrapers, camels and jet skis, falafel in home-baked bread and world-class wineries. It is hiking, dancing, and shopping, not necessarily in that order.

Our great medieval poet, Yehuda Halevi, described the painful yearning of exile by writing, “My heart is in the east” ... and next year, we have the opportunity to fulfill his dream by travelling to Israel together from March 12-21, 2023!

For many months now, I have been working with both the Federation and several local rabbis to create the “Motor City Mission” – the first time our Detroit Jewish community is going to Israel together in more than a decade. And as much as I love the idea of all going together, I am even more excited to travel with our own TBE contingent! We’ll have our own bus (or two, if enough people register) and lots of time to explore the best of Israel while building and deepening Temple friendships.

Whether this will be your first trip to Israel, or you’ve visited numerous times, our itinerary is designed to impress! Our adults-only journey will include unique historical visits, first class culinary experiences, VIP encounters, and lots of adventure. You can find all the details at www.MotorCityMission.com, but highlights include:

- Celebrating Israel’s 75th anniversary, since its founding in 1948.
- Luxury accommodations, with a daily breakfast buffet that will dazzle you.
- Holiness in Jerusalem – including the Kotel (Western Wall), a private tour of Yad Vashem (Holocaust Memorial Museum), a magical Shabbat experience, and the bustling Machane Yehuda Market.
- Splendor in Tel Aviv – including modern art and architecture, beautiful beaches, and world-class nightlife.
- Beauty up north – including security briefings in the Golan, mysticism and art in Tzfat, and festive events with our Israeli friends in Michigan’s Central Galilee Partnership Region.

Federation is offering subsidies on a first-come, first-served basis – sign up now so you don’t miss out. And, of course, TBE also has financial aid available ... we will do our best to ensure that nobody decides to pass for financial reasons.

I have already spoken with dozens of Temple members interested in going to Israel – and I truly hope you will join Rachel Ann and me, Temple President Rochelle Nelson, and our enthusiastic bus captains: Judy Roberts and Nancy Fortier!

We say it every year at Passover, but let it be a reality for you this time:

NEXT YEAR ... TRULY ... IN JERUSALEM!

For more information about joining the TBE bus on this trip of a lifetime, contact Jennifer Ritchie in the Rabbinic Study, jritchie@tbeonline.org or 248.851.1100. And if you have any specific questions or concerns, just ask her to arrange a time to talk or meet with Rabbi Miller.

Hidden in Plain Sight was a huge success! A big thank you to the incredible group that made the event happen. We had an amazing force of volunteers behind the scenes including a knowledgeable docent group and a dedicated event committee. A special thank you to our wonderful event chair, Wendy Rose Bice, and docent lead and tour designer, Barbara Cohn. This event would not have been possible without the support of our Patron Sponsors as well as our Pinnacle Event Sponsors John & Ella Imerman Foundation, Dr. Robert (z"l) & Joan Jampel, Jo-Ann MacWilliams-Wolf, The Meyer & Anna Prentis Family, and Walter Shapero & Kathleen Straus. Thank you to all of you who joined us for this event and enjoyed an afternoon uncovering just a fraction of what we have Hidden in Plain Sight here at Temple Beth El.

MARY EINSTEIN SHAPERO MEMORIAL LECTURE
MONDAY, JUNE 20
7:00 PM
Temple Beth El
Maas Chapel

The Leo M. Franklin Archives presents the 2022 Mary Einstein Shapero Memorial Lecture speaker, Lila Corwin Berman, author of Metropolitan Jews: Politics, Race, and Religion in Postwar Detroit. Berman will speak on her newest book The American Jewish Philanthropic Complex: The History of a Multibillion Dollar Institution. Sparked from a detail found in her book on Detroit, Lila Corwin Berman will reveal how the history of American Jewish philanthropy tells us far more than a simple success story and share the complicated and sometimes troubling history of American state policy, economic inequality, and enfeebled democracy.

For more information or to RSVP, contact Laura Gottlieb at lgottlieb@tbeonline.org or at 248-851-1100.

This program is generously sponsored each year by The Honorable Judge Walter Shapero and Kathleen Straus. Due to their generosity, this program is free and open to the public.

LILA CORWIN BERMAN holds the Murray Friedman Chair of American Jewish History at Temple University, where she directs the Feinstein Center for American Jewish History. Her most recent book, The American Jewish Philanthropic Complex: The History of a Multibillion-Dollar Institution, has been awarded the 2021 Ellis W. Hawley Prize from the Organization of American Historians and the Saul Viener Book Prize from the American Jewish Historical Society. Her articles have appeared in several scholarly publications, including the American Historical Review, Journal of American History, and AJS Review, and she has written guest columns for the Washington Post, the Forward, the Chronicle of Higher Education, and the Chronicle of Philanthropy. She is currently working on a new book called "America's Jewish Question" about the inclusions and exclusions of American liberalism. Spring is the season for Confirmation and Graduation at Temple Beth El! The Confirmation ceremony was created by the Reform movement to celebrate our young people who continue their Jewish education well into their teen years. The early Reformers wanted to establish an egalitarian ceremony for teens who would be more mature than bar/bat mitzvah students. We continue that tradition every year at TBE giving our 10th grade students an opportunity to reflect and express their commitment to Jewish learning and living. This year six students joined the legacy of Confirmation classes at Temple Beth El at Shabbat services on Friday, April 22nd.

The teen years are so important in the identity development of our young people, and we highly value the continuing engagement of our teens. We value their continued Jewish education so highly that we invest in it – literally. All high school students who continue their Jewish education from bar/bat mitzvah through to graduation from our program are presented with a check for $2500 from the Ruth Franklin Einstein Education Assistance Fund of Temple Beth El. Our hope is that this incentive will tempt even more of our teens to stay.

I want to highlight our amazing seniors who became the Graduation Class of 5782 at Temple Beth El at Shabbat services on Friday, April 29th

Class of 2022/5782

SAM GOODMAN

My favorite memory is from the New York Trip we took my freshman year. Being with a close group of friends and being able to spend quality time together learning more about the Jewish world was really impactful for me, and it is partly responsible for my consistent time spent here.

KIMBERLY GURWIN

One of my favorite memories from temple was cleaning the Ronald McDonald House with some of my closest friends during a Lawson trip.

CHLOE KREINDLER

My favorite Temple Beth El memory was when my mom was "Mrs. Chocolate" for temple, and I'd get pulled out of class once a year to help her in the office making deliveries.

HANNAH ROSINSKI

My favorite TBE memory was when I got stuck in the Obstacle Course at Defy during a BETY event. Kim was filming me do the ropes section – I fell backwards and got stuck halfway in the foam pit.

ANDREW (AJ) SHERMAN

My favorite temple memory is when I was a madrich for Forest Wolfe. I liked it because working with 1st graders was so much fun.

A hearty Mazel Tov to all of our ECC Graduates '22. This group of families spent the last two years in "covid with the utmost of caution" mode, and yet they stuck with us, and we stuck with them. On June 10th 19 lovely children will march proudly down the long aisle in the sanctuary. They will sing, dance, and accept their diplomas along with a "key to the building" on a lanyard. We sure hope they come back and visit often with their keys, and go on to participate in Masa as well. SEE OUR GRADUATES ON pg. 15.

Not only can these graduates come back to TBE and hug their teachers, they can also come to play on our new upgraded Playground. About 6 years ago, Jill Greenspan Gun helped us create a magical treehouse, stage and cool grass mounds to play on, and dedicated this renovation to the memory of her father, Fred Greenspan. Currently, we are designing an upgrade to this outdoor play space and need your help. Details can be found by visiting the Early Childhood Center page on tbeonline.org or by scanning the QR code on the left.

So far, we have raised $50,000 of $125,000 needed from business sponsorships, donations from current ECC families and friends, and an amazing online auction which alone made $12,500. The Playground committee is spearheaded and energized by Taryn Leib, Ali Smith, and Brittany Yaffa. The members of the playground committee who worked so hard to secure all the auction items and are now planning more events are Alex Wertheimer, Ava Warsh, Lindsay Schey, Jessica Olsman, Justin Jacobs, and Marissa Ruby. Many thanks to these hardworking and dedicated parents.

We are looking forward to 5 upcoming events that will all benefit the ECC Innovation Fund to help install the playground equipment and be the seed money for future projects:

JUNE 4: 10:00 AM—NOON ECC Shabbat and Paint the Picket fence to leave your family's mark on our playground.

JUNE 7: 4:00—6:00 PM Boogie Bash is an end of the year dance party for ECC families.

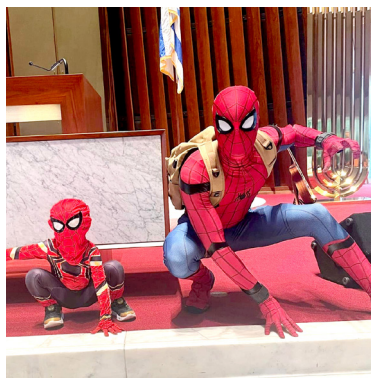

JULY 16: 7:00—11:00 PM Food Truck Festival a TBE wide spectacular event for adults with food trucks, live music, custom drinks, and tons of fun. As part of the Food Truck Auction, the ECC has been invited to create grade level baskets filled with in-kind donations where all the proceeds will benefit the ECC Innovation Fund.

SEPTEMBER 11: 11:30 AM—2:00 PM Touch a Truck Event ribbon cutting of our new playground and celebrating teachers and children alike who have made this ECC what is it today. Food, tons of trucks to touch and climb on, music, and playing on the new playground.

There is so much going on at our ECC. Thanks to all our staff, families and the entire congregation for all the support and love.

IT'S OUR TIME to Shine

Greetings to all as we begin looking toward a gorgeous Michigan summer!

rabbi megan BRUDNEY

As you all know, my favorite part of summer is camp, camp, camp. We're kicking off another round of postcards to our TBE campers wherever they may be this summer—I'll be reaching out to parents of all our pre b'nai mitzvah children or feel free to contact me right away to submit your child's information! And I am delighted to report that Dov Berg, a true camp expert after our four nights at Tamarack last summer, will be making his triumphant debut at the Reform Movement's GUCI camp outside Indianapolis in mid July. I am planning to return to Tamarack (hopefully on a day when they are serving knishes!) and you might even see me at Walden as well. I can't wait to reach so many of our kids in their summer homes!

For any of you who do not go to camp and will be here in Metro Detroit for the summer, we hope you've already saved the date for our Food Truck Festival on Saturday, July 16th! This year we have a phalanx of new trucks as well as a tent sponsored by none other than Mongers' Provisions! I can't wait for you all to taste some of the delicious foods that regularly just appear in my refrigerator. (I know, sorry for bragging.) Zach and I are so thankful for TBE members' ongoing patronage and we hope you show up at the Food Truck Festival extra hungry to do your part to support Temple! Also note that this year the Festival will feature a fabulous silent auction that will kick off online in advance so anyone can win even if you can't be there that night!

If none of these other events work for you, worry not—you can catch us under the tent for summer outdoor Shabbat services starting June 3rd or Up North for Shabbat in Charlevoix the weekend of August 19th!

Wishing you a safe and happy summer.

Simons Jewish Community Archives of the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Detroit Robbie Terman were the recipients of this year's Society of American (Archivists Archival Innovator Award.) TBE is only one of a few temples or synagogues in the United States that has a full-time braille bindery, run completely by volunteers.

Temple Beth El's Sisterhood Braille Bindery is proudly recognized as a leader in the printing and distributing of FREE Braille books for children by the Perkins School for the Blind in Boston, Massachusetts, where Helen Keller went to school in the mid-1850s. TBE's Braille Bindery was organized in 1959, and since then we have over 2,000 books, and an extensive website with online ordering. Our staff of volunteers is led by Janet Mazzara, a brailist certified by the Library of Congress. Our books are printed on our high-speed embossers, then bound, labeled, and shipped anywhere in the U.S. or Canada free of charge. We ship between 500-1,000 books each year to blind or low-vision children. Sisterhood funds the bindery and invites tax-free contributions to defray the cost of machines, braille paper, and other incidental expenses. For further information, please contact Earl Remer at (248) 669-3038 or (248) 252-3067.

We are so proud of all of our members for your amazing accomplishments, hard work, and dedication in our community.

The Temple Beth El family extends a hearty
