A Dazzling New Menorah

ILLUMINATING OUR TEMPLE and INSPIRING OUR COMMUNITY!

rabbi MARK MILLER

One of the "technical" reasons that Chanukah has become such a popular holiday is that all the way back in the Talmud (Shabbat 21a-24a), the rabbis decreed that the primary spiritual goal of the holiday's ritual is pirsumei nisa – "publicizing the miracle (of the oil)."

So I was thrilled when Temple members Sandy and Michael Hermanoff decided to help us commission a new Menorah last year. We turned to Lynn Rae Lowe – a brilliant artist from Arizona who also created our 7 Days of Creation artwork in the Chapel, and who grew up as a TBE member in Detroit! Her dazzling interpretation culminated with a beautiful unveiling and dedication ceremony during our Chanukah extravaganza on December 18, 2022.

My deepest hope is that our new Menorah will not only brighten our bima, our social hall, our foyer, and any other place where we use it ... but that it will inspire generations of Temple members to do exactly what the ancient rabbis hoped: spread light, goodness, and kindness far and wide in a world that desperately needs it.

The last time we had a new Chanukah Menorah at TBE was all the way back in 1943. That piece of ritual art served us well for nearly 80 years, but its aesthetic reflected a very different time in the life of our Temple. It had also been slowly falling apart for a number of years, and no longer offered our congregation a proud way to publicize our miracle.

BAKING for the SOUL Unorthodox Hamantaschen

rachel GREY ELLIS
Executive Director

Every year around Purim for as long as I can remember, I would spend days baking hamantaschen with my mom. Using a family secret recipe, she would prepare the dough in advance and then I would join in to fill and shape the cookies. We had orders from family and friends to fill, deliver and ship around the country and locally, making hundreds of hamantaschen to celebrate the holiday.

When my mother passed away, I heard the calling and knew I needed to take over this tradition. Last year was the first time without my mom, and I had to teach myself how to make the dough. I practiced and practiced using the recipe, her notes and all her kitchen equipment and eventually mastered the cookie.

We were surrounded by the food of our people, and it was a great reminder of what brings us all together without strife. Sitting around a dinner table with our loved ones and friends, eating the foods of our story, is one of the places I feel most connected to being Jewish.

The tradition of baking for Purim seemed lonely all by myself, so this year I invited TBE members and friends to Temple for an "Unorthodox Hamantaschen" event in partnership with Laura Gottlieb's "Make and Take" programs. I personally made each participant's dough myself and we filled Handleman Hall with a lot of joy, fun and creativity.

May you all enjoy your time with family and the traditions and food that continue to connect us.

A new tradition was instantly created with my temple family as the evening was a big hit (see you all next year). And no, I am not sharing the secret recipe!

When I think of the many traditions in my own family and in Jewish culture, food often takes center stage. Having recently returned from Israel where I represented Temple Beth El on the "Motor City Mission," I am recovering from the amazing and plentiful food we ate throughout the trip.

Preserving Michigan's Jewish Legacy

The JOAN MEYERS JAMPEL CENTER OPENS at TEMPLE BETH EL

laura GOTTlieb
Director of Cultural Resources

The move is complete! The start of 2023 brought lots of great starts - including the official move-in of the Joan Meyers Jampel Center for Michigan Jewish Heritage (Jampel Center). If you didn't catch the article in the January Bulletin, the Jampel Center is a collaborative effort to promote our state's Jewish legacy through the preservation of archival collections and joint outreach. It strives to connect the past with the present and celebrate the contributions of the Jewish community to Michigan and beyond. The founding members of the Jampel Center include TBE's Leo M. Franklin Archives and the Leonard N. Simons Jewish Community Archives of the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Detroit.

You may have noticed the "coming soon" signs and a bit of dust over by the DeRoy Sanctuary - that was from the construction of our state-of-the-art archival repository. This new space was built to house over 2,000 linear feet of archival collections. Check out the photos showing the process! You will see how the construction converted the space from a cloak and storage room into the new archives wing.

Once construction was complete, it was time for the big move! For the Leo M. Franklin Archives of Temple Beth El, it was as "simple" as moving collections from our archives room upstairs into the new space. For the Leonard N. Simons Jewish Community Archives, it was a much bigger project! The bulk of the Simons Collection has been housed, until now, at the Reuther Library downtown. We labeled every box, prepped and loaded them for transport, and a couple thousand boxes were placed on the new shelves.

Going forward, researchers, students, academics, and community members can visit the Jampel Center in its new home - within Temple Beth El! Inside the Prentis Memorial Library you will find the staff of both archives, their volunteers, and interns. The library is also home to the new reading room, a special space dedicated to researchers and volunteers for the Jampel Center.

A Mission to Remember Through Israel's Rich History and Breathtaking Beauty!

From Tel Aviv to Jerusalem

I recently had the opportunity to be a part of the Motor City Mission to Israel. I joined 140+ travelers, including clergy and Federation staff members on this memorable journey. Although this was not my first trip to Israel, it certainly felt like it.

rochelle NELSON
TBE Board President

Israel is an incredible and gorgeous country. Despite its small size, the variety of natural beauty is breathtaking. Every corner of the country is packed with history. When you travel to other countries there are beautiful mountains, deserts or oceans, but the combination of history and beauty is everywhere in Israel.

The staff of the Jewish Federation of Metropolitan Detroit spent almost a year planning and preparing for this trip. The staff that accompanied us were attentive to everyone on the trip. So many of us came home feeling that we had made many new friends.

What made our experience in Israel special was our tour guide Zalman, on the Temple Beth El / Shir Shalom bus #3. He has an incredible knowledge of the country and its history. Israel is a country where you have to get out of the major cities. Everywhere you go in this small country includes amazing historical sites, food and incredible people with so much spirit and pride. Daily, Zalman would prepare us for the sites and experiences we encountered each day. He mapped out our route and gave us significant historical facts connected to each site. Equally important was our bus driver. I was in awe of how he was able to maneuver through the narrow streets of Tel Aviv and Jerusalem. Clergy on our bus included our Rabbi Mark Miller as well as Rabbi Michael Moskowitz from Shir Shalom. Our bus captains, Nancy Fortier and Judy Roberts, supplied us with snacks and games during some of our longer bus rides.

For those who arrived a day early, the Federation staff planned a walking tour of Old Jaffa with time to enjoy all the street food in Tel Aviv. The Mission formally began with an evening reception at Floor 49, the top of the Azrieli Towers in Tel Aviv. The next morning the group welcomed the former Israeli Ambassador in London, Mark Regev, who discussed the challenges and inspirations in Israel today. The group spent two nights in Tel Aviv, during which we toured the city, visited various Federation sponsored agencies and toured the Museum of the Jewish People.

Then we were off to the Michigan Central Galilee Partnership Region where groups visited archaeological sites, the Nazareth Innovation and HiTech Park or spent time outdoors. We had dinner with Israelis from the Region at Kibbutz Sarid. We experienced the Golan Heights on ATV's; my driver was our fearless Executive Director, Rachel Ellis. After a delicious picnic lunch, the groups visited the Old City of Safed, a Galilean boutique winery or went hiking in the Galilee. That evening, staff, volunteers and teens from the Michigan Central Galilee Partnership joined the group for dinner.

We departed the next morning for Jerusalem, stopping for a unique Mission ceremony at the newly opened National Memorial for the Fallen Soldiers at Mt. Herzl, followed by a brief tour of the cemetery. We celebrated Shabbat at the Davidson Center and Hermelin Steps at the Southern Wall excavations with all the mission clergy, after which we walked to the Kotel. This was followed by Shabbat dinner. We ended Shabbat with Havdalah in the Orient Hotel, since it was raining outside. We visited Yad Vashem on Sunday followed by going on a culinary journey through Jerusalem, visiting Masada and the Dead Sea or touring the Temple Mount. We ended that day with dinner where we were entertained by Hafla drumming and dancing.

Noted American presidential historian, Gil Troy, spoke to our group Monday morning, after which we visited various Federation sponsored organizations. We enjoyed some free time for lunch and last minute shopping and then had a farewell dinner at an IDF Border Security base where we met the young men and women who secure the borders of Israel.

I admit that the trip was exhausting, but worth the sore feet and back. I experienced so much of this small country filled with beauty, history and fiercely proud people. I encourage anyone who has either thought about traveling to Israel as first timers or as repeat visitors to make the journey and take it off your bucket list. I am so happy I did!

Shalom!

Musical Highlights at TBE

from Chava Mirel to Billy Joel & Beyond

cantor rachel GOTTlieb KALMOWITZ

This has been a busy time at TBE, and I want to take a moment to mention a few of the music-focused events we have shared in the last few months, so that we can hold onto the pleasure that they brought to our temple family.

Chava Mirel was our guest for Global Voices, sponsored by Larry and Mary Epstein, on December 2-3. Shabbat services, Nosh and Knowledge, and an intimate house concert...the joy and presence that she brought to each of the events she led was palpable.

Our Youth Choir has been busy recently - with a performance at Love, Lights & Latkes and a fantastic Disney-themed Purim Spiel. Thank you to members Lilly Berg, Anna Burkett, Starla Fruitman, Olivia Herrin, Ilana Kalmowitz, and Brielle Silverstein for their enthusiasm and hard work. We are starting to think about next fall already, so please let me know if you have a 3rd-8th grader who loves to sing!

The Billy Joel-themed Purim Spiel at our Adult Purim Party was spectacular. Thanks especially to pianist Jim Gabriel and our talented cast, which included the clergy plus David Lurie, Sam Smetanin, Evan Ross, and Steve Tarnowsky. Our "Italian Restaurant," conceived and implemented by Rachel Ellis, supported by Nicole Jahr, Melanie Weber, and our entire staff, was filled to the brim with happy patrons, humming Billy Joel and eating pasta, while choosing between a "bottle of red...and a bottle of white."

Please note that I will be performing as part of the annual Michigan Board of Cantors concert at the Berman Theatre on Tuesday, May 9 at 7:30pm.

And finally, we will soon be welcoming Cantor Laurie Akers as a featured guest, sponsored by Sandy and Michael Hermanoff. Thursday, June 1st, she and I will perform a concert of beloved musical theater duets in our beautiful tent, and Friday, June 2nd, she will join our TBE Clergy in a rousing Summer Kickoff Shabbat service, preceded by the playground dedication ceremony, a BBQ, and lawn games.

I also want to let you know that as of March 15th, I am now in my 20th year at Temple Beth El. Thank you for all of your support and love throughout the years.

Celebrating Women of Passover: A MODERN SEDER

On Wednesday, March 22nd 50 women attended TBE's 2nd Annual Women's Seder. The ritual of the Passover seder is full of rich symbols, and is ripe for all kinds of interpretations and imagery.

debbie MOROSOHK
Director of Education

The women of the Passover story are especially compelling characters and our seder included a section on "The Badass Biblical Women of Passover". They included:

- Shifra and Puah – the Egyptian midwives
- Yocheved – the mother of Moses
- Pharaoh's Daughter
- Tziporah – the wife of Moses
- Miriam – The prophetess, a leader of women

Our story would not be complete without these characters, and they have inspired new modern symbols and rituals that can be important components of a women's seder, or any seder. Our seder included:

Miriam's Cup – filled with water representing the women who have sustained the Jewish people.

- Orange – A way of acknowledging the role of people who have felt marginalized in the Jewish community
- Olive – A symbol of peace

- Artichoke – A symbol of welcome to interfaith families
- Ruth's Cup – A symbol of welcome to Jews by Choice.

At our seder we sang, recited blessings, drank wine, and ate amazing food. We also shared with each other in discussion groups, and packaged tote bags of menstrual hygiene necessities for girls and women experiencing period poverty for "Dignity Grows." The room was filled with ruach (spirit) and warmth as everyone enjoyed being with friends, old and new.

Many thanks to our dedicated committee, Rabbi Megan Brudney, Lori Cohn, Nancy Fortier, Laura Gottlieb, Lucy Henney, Joanne Lax, Karen Lowen, Judy Roberts, and Cathy Segel, who planned this seder which inspired us and helped us spiritually prepare for the Passover holiday. We hope your Passover was filled with family, friends, celebration of our freedoms and understanding for those still in need of liberation.

PURIM... Fun-Filled Celebrations

rabbi MEGAN BRUDNEY

There's a reason I love to call Purim our spring high holiday—excitement is in the air, Facebook posts of costume and hamantaschen preparations abound, and most of all I get to see many of our congregants multiple times in just a small number of fun-filled days!

This year our first major Purim event was our annual Kid-ish Club Purim Blowout—which I'm proud to report was back to full mayhem-and-bounce-house-fueled strength after a few years of alternative visions due to the pandemic. Despite the rather intense snowstorm (yes, it was that Friday night), we welcomed around fifty families with young children to Temple that night.

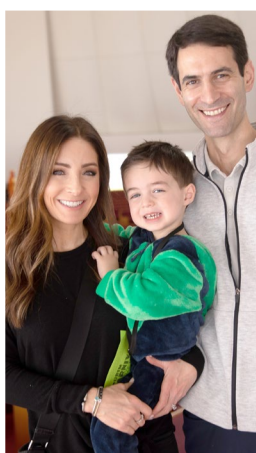

We started off in the Maas Chapel with singing and a mini retelling of the Megillah with plenty of BOOs for Haman! Next we enjoyed dinner from Leo's and might I add that I personally think getting the curly fries was the absolute key to the night's success. After that we piled into Handelman Hall to enjoy three large bounce houses, two small ones, a sparkle tattoo artist, a balloon animal maker, and an under two play area. We played the night away in our awesome costumes and thank goodness everyone drove home safely!

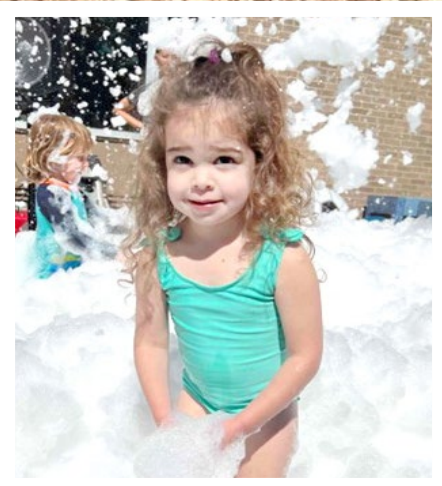

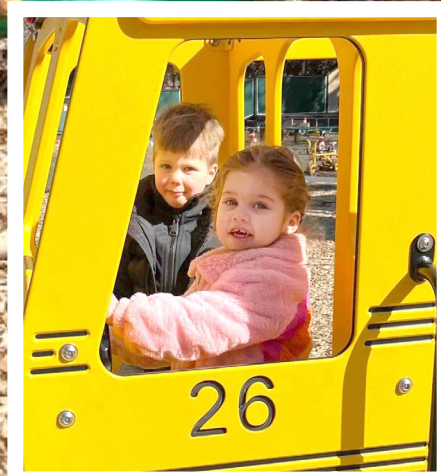

Just two days later was an event that looms large in the minds of all current and former Sunday Schoolers from temples near and far: the Purim Carnival! This year we began with our annual Purim assembly featuring singalong songs, a Disney-themed youth choir Purim Spiel, and my own world-famous (if I may say so myself) theatrical rendition of chapter five of the Megillah. Our grade school age kids were then set free to bounce, play games, win tickets, eat pizza and hamantaschen, and even participate in a quick service project opportunity! For our younger siblings and other five and under friends, we had a dedicated kiddie carnival to give them just a taste of what's to come.

We were also proud to have over twenty-five teens volunteering that day, many of whom helped set up the day before as organized by carnival chief and Youth Advisor Sam Smetatin. Thank you to Sam and your whole team for all the hard work that you put into immortalizing this day for generations to come!

I WANT TO GIVE A SPECIAL SHOUT-OUT TO:

Alissa VanderKooi, our Kid-ish Club Chair; Hannah Kessler, our Purim Blowout Chair; and the rest of the Kid-ish Club Committee (Elana Ackerman, Adam Berk, Sara Craig, Elizabeth Dizik, Jenna Klar, Taryn Leib, and Jeremy Posner) for all of their help planning, setting up, and implementing this wonderful program.

TBE ECC Unveils State-of-the-Art Playground

For Children's Outdoor Exploration & Play

susie WEINER
ECC Director

In 2015, we renovated our playground in memory of Fred Greenspan, thanks to the generous contribution of his family. The playground renovation included a magical treehouse, a stage, and coolgrass mounds for the children to play on. The Greenspan family's thoughtful gift created a wonderful play space that brought joy to countless children over the years.

Now, we're thrilled to announce the opening of our new, state-of-the-art playground. This has been updated to offer children the best possible experience and includes a variety of different areas for them to explore and play. We've kept some of the favorite features from the previous playground, such as the sandbox, figure 8 driving track, garden, tree house, stage, and outdoor kitchens. And we've added some exciting new features, including a teeter-totter, big yellow school bus, a climber with multiple slides and a rope climbing dome. For our youngest children, we've created a special area with bucket swings and a train for climbing.

We want to thank our committee chairs, Taryn Leib, Marissa Ruby, Alli Smith, and Brittany Yaffa, for their dedication and tireless efforts in selecting the best equipment and creatively raising funds.

At TBE ECC, we believe in the importance of outdoor play and fresh air for children's growth and development. We recognize that childhood memories are often made on the playground where children can explore, imagine, and play.

We also want to acknowledge Neighbor Nick, who renovated our stage and treehouse and installed new fencing.

As children, we all remember the magic of the playground - the excitement of running around, climbing, and exploring. We want our children to experience the same sense of wonder and adventure that we felt when we were young. That's why we invite everyone to join us for the official dedication and ribbon-cutting ceremony on Friday, June 2nd, with games, dinner, and an outdoor musical shabbat. Let's celebrate this exciting new space together and create new memories that our children will cherish for years to come.

Your TEMPLE ...

WORKING FOR YOU

Temple Beth El has 173 years of history, nearly 1,000 member families, and a calendar packed with opportunities to connect, learn, celebrate, and volunteer. But just as important, our Temple is here to provide resources, guidance, rituals, and spiritual counseling for a range of special moments throughout your lifetime. We would be happy to help you explore the various aspects of what Temple has to offer you as part of this sacred community.

Contact Jennifer Ritchie, in the rabbis study at rritchie@tbeonline.org or 248-851-1100.

BRIS/BABY NAMING: Special ceremonies at Temple, your home, or elsewhere to bless a new child, give them a Hebrew name, and welcome them into the Covenant of the Jewish People.

AUFRUF: Celebrate your upcoming wedding at Temple by receiving a blessing from the bimah during services, or coming up to the Torah for an aliyah.

ANNIVERSARIES: We will honor those celebrating "quinquennial" (every 5 years) anniversaries with a special blessing on the bimah during a Friday night service. For those married 50 years or more, please let us know so we can prepare a special gift – you are an inspiration to us all!

BLESSING YOUR HOME: A mezuzah can make a house feel like a Jewish home, and our clergy are available to help you affix a mezuzah with ceremony to bless your home.

SPIRITUAL COUNSELING: Life is filled with beauty, but it also contains difficulties. Judaism has a lot to offer, and our clergy are here to talk with you confidentially about any emotional, spiritual, or religious concerns you would like to discuss.

HOSPITAL VISITS: Whether you or a loved one are in the hospital for surgery, illness or another reason, we are here to offer comfort, spiritual guidance, and practical support. Our clergy visit hospitals throughout the metro area regularly, and are ready with a prayer, song, or gentle conversation.
